Day 3: Seville Tapas & Wine Tasting Tour

$105/$115* (4 hours, departure time varies)

Head to central Seville and meet up with a local guide. You'll set off on a food-themed walking tour through the charming Triana neighborhood that will mix history, traditions, and gastronomy together along the way. As you stroll along the river, learn the history of tapas and about Andalusian gastronomy before entering your first tapas bar. From the history of Barrio, the birthplace of flamenco, to the beautiful ceramic tiles, you'll be sure to gain a new insight on this amazing city while you feast on delicious plates of tapas.

Day 4: Cádiz & Sherry Tasting

$109/$119* (10 hours, departs in the morning)

Travel to the ancient port city of Cádiz and get to know one of western Europe's oldest inhabited cities. Meet up with a local guide and stroll through the Old Town, admiring varying architecture styles from different cultural groups who have called the city home. Pass Plaza de San Juan de Dios and the old Roman Theatre, then enter Cádiz Cathedral, which took more than 116 years to complete. If you're up for it, climb to the top of the cathedral's tower, where you can enjoy views of the city. Pay a visit to the Mercado Central for free time to enjoy lunch or shopping. Afterward, travel to Jerez, where Sherry, the famous fortified wine, is made. Tour of a Sherry house, or bodega, to learn how this famous fortified wine is produced, then enjoy a tasting.

Day 7: Granada Flamenco Show

$75/$85* (3 hours, departs in the evening)

Flamenco is a unique and colorful Andalusian art form that combines guitar playing, singing, clapping, and dancing. UNESCO declared flamenco to be one of the Masterpieces of the Oral and Intangible Heritage of Humanity and tonight, you'll get a taste of this one-of-a-kind art form in the region where it was created. Make your way to a traditional cave dug into the hillsides where you'll sip an included drink as you watch the authentic performance, which allows expressive lyrics, moving instrumentals, and passionate dancing.

Day 9: Picasso Museum Málaga & Jardín Botánico Histórico

Explore the museum with a local guide, and learn more about the artist who hailed from Málaga and spent his childhood there until the age of ten. Later, head to the Jardín Botánico Histórico, a designated historical-artistic garden created in 1855. Set off on a leisurely walking tour through the sub-tropical landscape to hear about and see the more than 1,000 species that call the garden home.

Extension excursion options

Day 12: A Day in Gibraltar

$155/$165* (8 hours, departs in the morning with lunch)

Make your way along the Costa del Sol to Gibraltar, a pocket of British culture in the Mediterranean. This overseas territory of Great Britain is most famously home to the iconic Rock of Gibraltar. Today, you'll get a close-up look during a visit to the Gibraltar Nature Reserve, established in 1993 to protect native wildlife. Here, get to know the resident population of semi-wild Barbary macaques while keeping an eye out for the many species of migratory birds that use the rock as a resting place. Then, take in sweeping views of the ocean (and Africa on a clear day) as you journey to sites such as St. Michael's Cave, Spur Battery, and Europa Point Lighthouse. End with an included lunch and pint at a local pub and some free time in town before transferring back to Costa del Sol. Please note: As Gibraltar is a territory of the United Kingdom, you must show your passport to enter. Make sure you have yours with you before this excursion departs.
