Day 3: Farmhouse Wine & Olive Oil Tasting with Lunch

$129/$139* (4 hours, departs in the afternoon, lunch included)

Make your way to the provincial town of Colle Verde, located in the Tuscan hills, for a culinary experience you won't forget. You'll visit an authentic agriturismo, or farm stay, to learn how olive oil is extracted and refined. Enjoy a tasting of wine and olive oil produced right on the farm. Then, sit down to savor more locally made products during a lunch in the farmhouse.

Day 6: Tuscan Villa Winery & Dinner

$145/$155* (4.5 hours, departs in the evening with dinner)

Set off into the rolling hills of the Chianti region to visit a winery and farm estate, known locally as an agriturismo. You'll tour the villa and gardens to learn about wine production surrounded by the stunning scenery of the Tuscan countryside. Then, enjoy dinner accompanied by three wine varietals produced on the estate.

Day 10: Pecorino Toscano Cheese Tasting

$109/$119* (3 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Pecorino cheese is a staple in Tuscany, and the Montepulciano region is home to some of the top producers of this beloved dairy product. Pay a visit to a local cheesemaker to learn about the cheese-making process. This hard cheese is made from sheep's milk and has a mild, buttery flavor. When you cut into Pecorino Toscano, the type of Pecorino produced in the region you're visiting, it will be firm and slightly crumbly. After learning about the characteristics that make a top-notch Pecorino, sample some of the flavorful local cheese during a tasting.

Extension excursion options

Day 12: Tuscan Cooking Class & Dinner

$115 (2.5 hours, departs in the evening with dinner)

This evening, learn how to make a traditional Tuscan meal under the direction of expert local chefs. Craft authentic pici, a thick, hand-rolled pasta, two kinds of bruschetta, and tiramisu. Then, pair your creations with wine, and sit down to a delicious dinner with your group. Please note: Depending on the size of the group, the class may be divided into two shifts. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 13: Accademia Gallery

$65 (2 hours, departure time varies)

Home to Michelangelo's masterpiece David, the Accademia Gallery is one of the most famous museums in Florence. Skip the ticket lines, and join a local guide on a tour of the museum as you learn about Renaissance art history and view a variety of pieces, including the marble statue of David. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 70 days prior to departure.

Day 13: Michelangelo's Florence

$95/$105* (4 hours, departs in the morning)

Unravel the genius of Michelangelo, the famous painter, architect, and poet, as you tour notable museums throughout Florence. Start with the San Lorenzo complex, viewing the basilica's counter façade and the Medici Chapels, where you can admire his magnificent sculptures and the architecture in the Laurentian Library vestibule. Walk by Palazzo Medici Riccardi and continue on to enter the Museo dell'Opera del Duomo to see the famous Pietà sculpture and the original Gate of Paradise. On a walking tour of the city, pass the Bargello National Museum and the Buonarroti House, once owned by the artist himself. End the tour outside of the Basilica of Santa Croce, site of Michelangelo's tomb.
