Day 4: Phillip Island Penguin Parade

$159 (7.5 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Every night, the tiny penguins of Phillip Island waddle ashore in an adorable parade. On this excursion, you'll journey to Summerland Beach to see the penguins come home after a long day of fishing. They're returning to feed their babies, and you'll watch as the penguins arrive for dinner on the beach. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent. Travelers should wear seasonally appropriate clothing as this excursion takes place entirely outdoors. Because of the penguins' sensitive vision, photography of the parade is not permitted. We recommend bringing snacks or purchasing food at the cafe as you'll arrive back at the hotel late this evening. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 5: Yarra Valley Winery & Steamtrain

$189 (9 hours, departs in the morning with lunch)

Embark on a journey to the Dandenong Ranges rainforest. Next, board the authentic "Puffing Billy" steam-powered train en route to Menzies Creek. Along the way, admire the mountain's eucalyptus forest and fern gullies. After the scenic train ride, you'll travel to a regional vineyard to enjoy an included lunch and wine tasting, followed by a visit to another local winery. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 7: Uluru Scenic Plane Ride

$115 (1.5 hours, departure time varies)

Make your way to the airport to board a small, private aircraft that will fly you over Uluru. Your local guide will provide commentary on the grand, red monolith, which indigenous Australian tribes have worshipped for over 22,000 years. Everyone will have a window seat during the 24-minute flight to soak in the bird's-eye views as you travel over the Outback. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent. There is no personal weight limit, but if you weigh over 198 pounds you will need to provide your weight to flight staff on tour to ensure the overall aircraft weight limit is not exceeded. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 10: Australian Hot Air Balloon Ride

$299/$309* (4 hours, departs in the morning)

Sail through the morning sky high above the Atherton Tablelands on this breathtaking excursion. This area is known for its beautiful mix of lush rainforests, thundering waterfalls, and sprawling savannas. As you rise into the sky, you may spot local wildlife grazing below, including kangaroos and wallabies. Your balloon ride lasts 30 minutes. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent.

Day 10: Kuranda Village Aboriginal Park & Rainforest

$175/$185* (9 hours, departs in the morning)

Join an expert guide and set out to explore the Rainforestation Nature Parks' Pamagirri Aboriginal Experience. Along the way, you'll learn how to make and play a didgeridoo and how to throw a spear, and watch performances that celebrate the culture of the rainforest's indigenous people. Next, you'll take a scenic ride on the historic Kuranda Train before a leisurely lunch break. Enjoy some free time to explore the Kuranda Village, where you may discover treasures at the markets, visit an Aboriginal art gallery, or hop on a river cruise. Before the end of your trip, take a ride on the Skyrail cable car, soaring high over the canopy of the forest. The cable car will stop along the way, giving you the chance to walk along a boardwalk on the rainforest floor.

Day 11: Sydney Harbour Dinner Cruise

$149/$159* (2.5 hours, departs in the evening with dinner)

Take a dinner cruise through Sydney Harbour, soaking in views of the city's famous bridge, opera house, and twinkling cityscape at night. The MV Sydney 2000, one of Sydney's most prestigious cruise ships, features multiple decks and live entertainment. Your dinner will be served on the Sky Deck, offering 360-degree views of the city.

Day 13: Taronga Conservation Society & Wildlife Visit

$95/$105* (4 hours, departs in the morning)

Make your way to the Taronga Zoo in Sydney by ferry across Sydney Harbor. Next, meet up with a local guide at the Taronga Institute of Science & Learning. This on-site building is where the team's scientists study the country's wildlife and develop programs to conserve threatened ecosystems. Your guide will show you the outside of the prep kitchen and walk you through the animal holdings to show you how and where the animals under their care live. You'll also hear about the many conservation projects the institute is committed to, including recovering native species and protecting their habitats, as well as rescuing and rehabilitating injured wildlife. Then, see both Koala Walkabout and the Tree Kangaroo areas while learning about the community projects the conservation spearheads. After your tour, enjoy free time to explore the zoo before taking a ride on the Taronga Zoo ferry across Sydney Harbour to soak in spectacular views of the city.

Day 17: Walter Peak: Lake Cruise & Lunch

$125/$135* (4 hours, departs in the morning with lunch)

Board the steam-powered TSS Earnslaw in Queenstown for a cruise across Lake Wakatipu. Your destination is Walter Peak, one of New Zealand's most famous sheep and cattle stations. There, you'll enjoy a barbecue lunch along with beer or wine. Then, watch a sheep-shearing demonstration and sheep dog show before heading back to Queenstown on a return cruise. Please note: This excursion is seasonal and runs June through September. A weatherproof jacket and comfortable shoes are recommended.

Day 17: Walter Peak: Lake Cruise & Dinner

$129/$139* (4 hours, departs in the evening with dinner)

Board the steam-powered TSS Earnslaw in Queenstown for a cruise across Lake Wakatipu. Your destination is Walter Peak, one of New Zealand's most famous sheep and cattle stations. There, you'll enjoy a barbecue dinner and watch a sheep-shearing demonstration and sheepdog show before heading back to Queenstown. Please note: This excursion is seasonal and runs January to May and from October to December. A weatherproof jacket and comfortable shoes are recommended.

Day 18: Māori Village & Hāngi Feast

$119/$129* (4 hours, evening with dinner)

The Māori are an indigenous group of Polynesian descent who developed a cooking style known as hāngi, which uses steam, hot rocks, and cloth to cook food inside a manmade hole in the soil. Tonight, head to a Māori village, located in the forest outside of Rotorua, to learn about their unique artworks and ancient rituals before experiencing a traditional hāngi feast. After your dinner, enjoy watching a kapa haka performance which combines haka (posture dance), waiata-ā-ringa (action songs), and waiata koroua (traditional chants).

Day 21: Waiheke Island

$145/$155* (6.5 hours, departs in the morning)

Board a ferry and settle in for a scenic cruise across the Auckland Harbour to Waiheke Island. Upon arrival at the wharf, a local guide will provide full commentary regarding the history of the island, the native flora and fauna, and tales of the region. Make your way to a boutique vineyard for a wine tasting before continuing to a bustling olive oil mill. With the beach close by, take some time after the tastings to explore the coast and soak in the spectacular views. Before boarding the ferry back to Auckland, you'll have free time for lunch at a local cafe or restaurant.

Extension excursion options

Day 23: Tivua Island Sailing & Snorkeling

$125/$135* (7 hours, departs in the morning with lunch)

Set sail on a scenic cruise to Fiji's Tivua Island, a small tropical paradise surrounded by stunning coral reefs. When you're not enjoying afternoon tea or an included buffet lunch, the day will be yours to spend as you'd like. Soak up some sun on the white-sand beach or lounge in a hammock for the ultimate in relaxation. When you're ready to cool off, paddle around the island in a kayak, board a glass-bottom boat with a marine biologist, or hop in the water snorkeling. Back on shore, there will be plenty of opportunities to get acquainted with local culture as you take part in a traditional Kava ceremony,
