

Spain for Solo Travelers: Barcelona, Madrid & Seville

9 days | 12 days with Granada & Málaga extension

Get to know three distinctly different sides of Spain as you spend a week exploring a trio of exciting cities alongside other solo travelers. Barcelona, the cosmopolitan, coastal capital of Spain's Catalonia region, bursts at it seams with whimsical works of art by greats such as Picasso and Miró, and architectural icons by Antoni Gaudí. Madrid, Spain's sprawling capital, is chock-full of bustling food markets, world-class museums, and royal history. And in Seville, the Andalusian capital, historic churches, grand palaces, Moorish buildings, and flamenco dancing await. Want to experience a more laid-back side of Spain, too? Extend your tour and head south. You'll visit Granada—a city nestled in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada mountains—and Málaga, a charming port city on the Costa del Sol.

Included meals: breakfast

Journey by high-speed train to Spain's capital, Madrid, a bustling city that's latticed with elegant boulevards and blanketed with vast, manicured parks.

Spend a free evening in the city or add an excursion.

Please note: Porterage is not included for the train transfers. Travelers must be comfortable lifting and carrying all luggage over steps, onto platforms, and into luggage storage.

+ Traditional Spanish Evening

Day 5: Sightseeing tour of Madrid & cooking class

Included meals: breakfast, dinner

Get acquainted with Spain's cosmopolitan capital city with the help of a local guide.

- View the Royal Palace, Spain's largest royal residence.
- Pass by the Temple of Debod, a reassembled temple from ancient Egypt.
- View the city's many squares, including Plaza Colón and Plaza Neptune.
- Explore the Prado, a world-class art museum that began as the private collection of the Spanish monarchy and is home to the works of Goya, Velásquez, and more iconic artists.

This evening, head to a local culinary school for a hands-on cooking class, during which you'll craft Spanish tapas under the guidance of an experienced chef. Then, sit down for an included dinner and enjoy what you've prepared.

Seville → 2 nights

Day 7: Seville via Córdoba & olive oil farm

Included meals: breakfast, tasting

Settle in aboard a high-speed train and enjoy the ride to the Andalusian city of Córdoba, once an important Roman city and a major Islamic center in the Middle Ages.

Please note: Travelers should feel comfortable managing their own luggage while getting on and off the train.

Then, discover the history of Córdoba—once home to 700 mosques, 900 public baths, and 70 libraries—and the cuisine of Andalusia.

- Pass by Córdoba's Roman Bridge, which was built in the first century BC and features 16 irregularly patterned arches.
- View the medieval Albolafia Mill, one of several historic watermills in the city.
- Enter the Mezquita, a UNESCO World Heritage site built in the eighth century as a mosque and then transformed into a cathedral during the Christian Reconquista of 1236.

After exploring Córdoba, board your coach and continue on to a family-owned olive oil farm for a tour and tasting.

- Join a local guide for a tour of the farm's olive groves, mill, and cellar.
- Learn how olives are grown, harvested, and turned into olive oil, one of Spain's major exports.
- Sample some orange-infused olive oil drizzled on top of chocolate gelato.
- Enjoy free time to shop for made-on-the-farm products.

Continue on to Seville and spend a free evening in the city.

Day 8: Sightseeing tour of Seville & flamenco show

Included meals: breakfast, tasting, farewell dinner

Uncover the beauty of Seville—Andalusia's capital city, which is known for its historic churches, palaces, and Moorish buildings—on a guided sightseeing tour.

- View the tiled pavilion of the Plaza de España, a massive, semi-circular brick building built in Renaissance and neo-Moorish styles for the 1929 Ibero-American Exhibition.
- Pass the whitewashed homes of Barrio de Santa Cruz, a popular neighborhood known for its cobblestone streets, narrow alleys, and tiled benches.
- See the Gothic Seville Cathedral, the third-largest church in the world.
- Enter the Royal Alcázar, a palace that was once home to King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella.

- Stop to enjoy a tasting of several types of tapas dishes.

Tonight, get a taste of old Seville during a live flamenco show.

- Join your fellow travelers for a celebratory farewell dinner.
- Sip an included drink as you watch the authentic performance, which comprises expressive lyrics, moving instrumentals, and passionate choreography.
- After discovering why UNESCO has declared flamenco to be one of the Masterpieces of the Oral and Intangible Heritage of Humanity, enjoy free time to explore the vibrant Santa Cruz neighborhood.

Day 9: Departure

Included meals: breakfast (excluding early morning departures)

Transfer to the airport for your flight home or continue on to visit Granada and Málaga.

+ Granada & Málaga extension

Join your fellow solo travelers and head south to experience the mountains and Costa del Sol. Nestled at the foot of the Sierra Nevada mountain range, the Andalusian city of Granada is home to a dazzling array of medieval structures dating to the Moorish period, most notable among them the Alhambra. Stop to explore charming mountain villages, and sample specialties like Jamón Serrano, as you make your way to Málaga, a port city and Pablo Picasso's hometown. There, marvel at the ruins of an ancient Roman theater and perhaps duck into a cozy bar or restaurant to sample some of the flavors for which the city is known.

Granada → 1 night

Day 9: Transfer to Granada & sightseeing tour of Alhambra

Included meals: breakfast

Head south toward Granada, then take a guided tour of the UNESCO-recognized Alhambra, the Moorish sultans' last stronghold in Spain.

- Walk along the Cypress Promenade to view the upper and lower gardens of Generalife Palace, once the Nasrid dynasty's summer home.

- Enjoy panoramic views of Granada and its surrounding countryside.
- View the unique curved, Roman-style courtyard inside the Palace of Charles V.
- Admire the blend of Western art and Islamic design as you stroll through ornamented courtyards.
- Enter the Nasrid Palaces and see the Mexuar, where the Council of Ministers met.
- See where the royal family lived during visits to Comares Palace and the Palace of the Lions.

Please note: The order of activities is subject to change.

Málaga → 2 nights

Day 10: Málaga via Alpujarra villages of the Sierra Nevada Mountains & sightseeing tour of Málaga

Included meals: breakfast, tasting

Visit several Alpujarra villages in the Sierra Nevada mountain range, which is home to the highest peak on the Iberian Peninsula.

- Meet your local guide in the town of Órgiva, a bustling market town that has become a melting pot of various communities living the Spanish lifestyle.
- Travel to Pampaneira, a mountain village known for its ceramics, leather, and clothing.
- Make your way to Trevélez, one of the highest villages in the Sierra Nevadas and a region known for its ham, or jamón, production.
- Stop for a tasting of locally produced Jamón Serrano.

Continue on to Málaga and get to know the port city on a sightseeing tour.

- View the Málaga Cathedral, nicknamed the One-Armed Woman for its incomplete second tower.
- Learn about the city's history as you view its ancient Roman theatre.
- Marvel at the hilltop, fortified Moorish palace of Alcazaba, which was built in the 10th century and has served as a royal residence and military structure.

Day 3: Park Güell & La Pedrera

$149CAD/$159CAD* (4 hours, departure time varies)

On today's excursion, discover the magnificent works of Antoni Gaudí, the famed Spanish architect known for his bold, distinct designs. Casa Milà is the first stop. Take a guided tour of this building, popularly known as "La Pedrera," which was built by Gaudí between 1905 and 1910. Everything about the building is visually unique, from its wave-like stone structure to the grandly designed roof. Next, you'll head to Park Güell, also designed by Gaudí. Your guide will lead you through the park, which contains stunning buildings, intricate stonework, and colorful mosaics. At the top of the park, marvel at the brilliant views of Barcelona.

deep gorge. Walk by Mondragón Palace and enter Casa Museo Don Bosco, an historic home with beautiful views over the surrounding countryside. To experience true local flavors, enjoy a glass of Andalusian wine in Ronda. Afterward, visit the unique town of Setenil de las Bodegas, part of which has been built into rock overhangs. Enjoy free time to walk through the town and its hilltop fortress, which was built by the Moors.

Day 4: Traditional Spanish Evening

$165CAD/$175CAD* (3 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Start the evening with a stroll through Plaza Mayor. Your Tour Director will tell you about the history of the square, where you'll see locals and travelers alike. On your way to dinner, walk through the illuminated streets of Madrid, taking in the local neighborhood ambiance in the evening light. Then, enjoy conversation, camaraderie, and live music at one of the oldest restaurants in the city. Between traditional Castilian courses, you'll be entertained by tuno music, an artistic tradition with its roots in Spain's universities.

Day 6: Toledo

$145CAD/$155CAD* (8 hours, departure time varies)

Today, discover Toledo, the cliff-top city often referred to as La Ciudad Imperial ("The Imperial City"). Upon arrival, you'll have some free time to explore. Later in the afternoon, you'll kick off a guided tour at Toledo Cathedral: a massive Gothic structure housing a treasure trove of stained glass windows and golden artifacts. Gaze upon its sacristy, containing masterpieces by the likes of Van Dyck, El Greco, Rubens, and Titian. After exploring the labyrinth of medieval alleyways in the heart of the city, you'll visit the Church of Santo Tomé—a former mosque, dating to the 12th century, graced by one of El Greco's finest works, "The Burial of the Count of Orgaz." End your day with a stop at Santa María la Blanca, a museum that ranks as one of the oldest synagogues in Europe. Please note: This tour involves some walking over uneven terrain. Also, depending on the day of the week, the sites you visit may change.
