Day 3: Rila Monastery & Dinner

$125/$135* (6.5 hours, departs in the afternoon, dinner included)

Travel through the Rila Mountains' dense pines as you make your way to the Rila Monastery. Founded in the 10th century in honor of Bulgaria's revered hermit, Saint Ivan of Rila, this UNESCO World Heritage Site is the country's largest Eastern Orthodox monastery and still houses monks today. After taking in the beautiful grounds, distinctive frescos, and impressive architecture, travel back to Sofia. En route, stop at a local mountain restaurant to experience the sites (and tastes) of country life in Bulgaria. You'll enjoy an included dinner of local specialties served with beer and wine followed by a tasting of Rakiya, the region's famous fruit brandy.

Day 5: River Cruise & Serbian Dinner

$135/$145* (3, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Head to Belgrade's waterfront, where you'll board a scenic cruise. As you travel down the Sava and Danube rivers, soak in views of Old Belgrade, Belgrade Fortress, and New Belgrade and the historic Zemun neighborhood. You'll also pass Great War Island, a protected nature reserve that's home to almost 200 species of bird. Then, disembark to enjoy a traditional Serbian dinner served with beer or wine at a local restaurant overlooking the Danube River. Please note: This excursion is seasonal and runs from April to October.

Day 8: Medieval Transylvania

$109/$119* (9 hours, departs in the morning)

Want to see where Dracula was born? Travel deep inside the heart of Transylvania and discover the medieval town made famous by Vlad Tepes. First, you'll stop in the village of Axente Sever to see the 14th century fortified church built by the Saxons. Then, in the citadel town of Sighisoara, explore the old city, which has remained largely unchanged since the 17th century. Continue your explorations through the village streets, stopping at the City Council Square, the City Museum, and Clock Tower before heading back to Sibiu.
