Day 3: Mount Lycabettus Hike & Sunset Dinner

$175CAD/$185CAD* (4 hours, departs in the afternoon, dinner included)

Head to the National Gardens in Syntagma Square and join your Tour Director on a hike to the top of Mount Lycabettus. The summit of the mountain is just under 1,000 feet, making it the highest point in the city. According to Greek mythology, the limestone hill was once a refuge for wolves. This tale may also be where the name of the site comes from, as lycos is Greek for wolf. Admire the stunning views of Athens below as you hike up the hill. Once at the top, sit down for an included dinner at the Orizontes restaurant. You'll watch the sun set over the city while admiring a one-of-a-kind view of the Parthenon and Acropolis. Take a cable car ride back down the mountain after dinner. Please note: The hike is not difficult, but it is steep and prolonged. There are many steps over a wide, flat pathway. The hike takes around 90 minutes, and we strongly recommend wearing closed-toe shoes. Travelers have the option to take a cable car from the midway point to the top.

Day 5: Paros Boat Cruise & Snorkeling

$245CAD (7 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Head to the port in Paros and board a catamaran to cruise to the nearby islands of Antiparos and Despotiko. You'll enjoy swimming and snorkeling at the picture-perfect Blue Lagoon on Antiparos, as well as in local sea caves, at the uninhabited Despotiko island, and on the idyllic Faneromeni Beach. A full Greek barbecue lunch of pork, chicken, and fish souvlaki paired with vegetables will be served aboard the boat. You'll also enjoy unlimited wine, beer, water, and soft drinks. After spending a full day sailing, island hopping, and taking in the beautiful coastal scenery of the Cyclades Islands, dock at the port in Paros and make your way back to your hotel. Please note: We recommend packing a bathing suit, sunscreen, and towel. Snorkeling equipment is provided. This excursion is seasonal and runs from early-May through the end of September. It's also weather-dependent. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 7: Apeiranthos Village Hike, Lunch & Liquor Tasting

$149CAD/$159CAD* (7 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Drive into the mountainous region of Naxos and enjoy quaint villages and hikes as you make your way to the picturesque village of Apeiranthos. Begin in the traditional village of Ano Potamia, set off on an hour long hike to Kato Potamia alongside a local guide. Your next stop is at Panagia Drosiani Church. This is one of the oldest Christian monuments in the Mediterranean, and you'll enter the grounds to learn about the historic buildings. Continue to Apeiranthos for a guided tour where you'll see Venetian towers, classic white archways, and charming two-story homes as you pass through tiny squares and by quaint cafes. Visit the Apeiranthos Women's Traditional Crafts Cooperative to learn how the women who work there produce traditional woven textiles. This handicraft has been passed from generation to generation, and you'll see the loom they use to make the traditional pieces. Then, enjoy an included lunch served with local wine at a nearby tavern. The day ends with a visit to Vallindras Distillery in the village of Halki. You'll take a tour of the distillery and learn about the production of kitron. This liquor is made from citron, a citrusy fruit that's similar to a lemon, but is less bitter. You'll enjoy a tasting of this traditional island liquor before heading back to your hotel. Please note: The hike is 60–90 minutes long over a hilly dirt and rock path with uneven terrain and lots of steps.

Extension excursion options

Day 10: Cretan Coast Boat Ride, Samaria Gorge Hike & Lunch

$215CAD/$225CAD* (10 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Eat, hike, and swim your day away, as you explore picturesque southern Crete. Start the day by visiting the village of Chora Sfakion to enjoy a tasting of tiropita, a flaky cheese and egg pastry made with honey. You'll then board a boat and set off for Agia Roumeli. This village is home to rare flora, fauna, geology, and hiking trails through unspoiled nature. Join your Tour Director on a four-mile hike through Samaria Gorge, which is a Greek National Park, and part of the World Network of Biosphere Reserves. Admire the towering rock walls as you make your way through the winding pathways. You'll also have free time to explore the village or swim at the beach in Agia Roumeli after your hike. Sit down for an included lunch before boarding the boat back to Chora Sfakion. Then, continue on to your hotel in Chania. Please note: We recommend packing a bathing suit and sturdy walking shoes. The hike is 1.5–2 hours long over a hilly dirt and rock path with uneven terrain and lots of steps. This excursion is seasonal and runs from May through early October. It is also weather-dependent.
