 - Sample award-winning Gesha coffee, a rare type of coffee made from beans that are only grown in a few countries across the globe
- + Cloud Forest Nature Walk & Bird Watching

Chitré Region → 1 night

Day 8: Transfer to the Chitré Region & sightseeing tour of artisan workshops

Included meals: breakfast, lunch, dinner

Travel south to the Chitré Region to discover why this area is considered the cultural cradle of Panama. You'll take a guided tour after an included lunch to get to know four local craftspeople located in Chitré and the picturesque town of Parita.

- Meet a drum-maker and learn how the artisan creates this popular instrument as you enjoy a musical demonstration
- Step inside a pottery workshop to meet a potter who will demonstrate how to make ceramics in a handmade oven
- Visit a family of mask-makers to hear how they research and design the traditional Diablico Sucio masks
- Interact with a family of textile workers who specialize in creating polleras, colorful Latin American skirts, which can take years to complete
- See the colorful designs, as well as the threading and sewing techniques, as the artisans talk about the history and significance of the skirts

Enjoy an included dinner this evening.

Panama City → 3 nights

Day 9: Transfer to Panama City, Panama Canal cruise & Miraflores Locks

Included meals: breakfast

Travel to Panama City and spend the day exploring the legendary Panama Canal —a feat of engineering.

- Board a covered boat in the town of Gamboa and float alongside commercial and private boats as you sail along Gatun Lake
- Learn about the manmade lake, which plays an essential role in helping ships pass through the Panama Canal
- Try to spot wildlife including Panamanian tamarins, green iguanas, crocodiles, and birds along the lake's jungle-lined shoreline

After your boat ride, head to the Miraflores Locks and enjoy exclusive access to one of the most important areas of the Panama Canal.

Day 3: Sky Walk

$65/$75* (time length varies, departure time varies)

The canopy layer of the Costa Rican rainforest teems with life, but until recently, it was difficult for travelers to enter this world. On today's excursion, a guided tour brings you to a series of suspended bridges high above the floor of the Monteverde cloud forest.

Day 5: Manual Antonio Catamaran Cruise

$115/$125* (3 hours, departure time varies)

Spend the afternoon cruising along the central Pacific coast of Quepos on board the Ocean King catamaran, the largest in Central America. Sail through the various islands and rock formations as you explore Manuel Antonio National Park from the water, keeping an eye out for dolphins and sea birds that inhabit the area. Snorkel in the calm turquoise waters as you explore the underwater beauty up close. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent and will run in the afternoon from January to March and in the morning from April through mid-December.

Day 7: Cloud Forest Nature Walk & Bird Watching

$65/$75* (3 hours, departs in the morning)

On the outskirts of Volcán Barú National Park sits a stunning cloud forest that's home to a variety of flora and fauna. On today's excursion, you'll set out on a hike to explore this remote rainforest with a local guide. Walk along one of the park's well-maintained trails and stay on the lookout for rare local wildlife including the resplendent quetzal bird, sloths, and monkeys.

Day 10: Casco Viejo & Cinta Costera Bike Tour

$55/$65* (3 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Explore the historic district of Panama on a guided bike tour. Meet up with a local guide in the heart of Casco Viejo along the Simon Bolívar Plaza and embark on a three-hour bike ride. Ride past landmarks like Plaza Simon Bolívar, the Arco Chato, Plaza de Francia, La Bóvedas, and the local artisan mini market. Then, make your way to the waterfront and bike along Cinta Costera, taking in beautiful views of the ocean and city. Stop at a local market, and cool down with some ceviche and a refreshing drink before returning to your hotel.

Extension excursion options

Day 12: Cartagena Cooking Class & Dinner

$129/$139* (4 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Spend the evening at a restaurant enjoying a cooking demonstration to see how to make flavorful local foods followed by a delicious included dinner.

Day 13: Boquilla Mangroves & Afro-Caribbean Drum Lesson

$89/$99* (3 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Start the day by visiting the fishing village of La Boquilla where you'll explore the lush mangroves by boat with a native guide. Board a traditional wooden canoe as a local guides you through the waterways. You'll see the variety of flora and fauna that flourish within the unique ecosystem. Then, disembark your canoe to enjoy an Afro-Caribbean music and drumming lesson on the beach near the fishing village. Afro-Caribbean music traces its roots back to West and Central Africa, having been brought to Latin America during the trans-Atlantic slave trade. In Colombia, this music style often incorporates the celebratory rhythms found in Trinidadian Calypso and improvisational elements typical of Cuban descarga. You'll learn all about the music from the locals as you try your hand at recreating the upbeat tunes. After, travel back to Cartagena.

Day 14: A Day on Isla Barú

$155/$165* (10 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Spend the day off the coast of Cartagena and explore Isla Barú, one of the country's most picturesque isles. Isla Barú is home to one of the most stunning white-sand beaches in Colombia and you'll enjoy a free day to relax on the shores of this tropical paradise. Snorkel and swim in the beautiful blue water, lounge on a hammock, or opt to purchase a massage treatment. Enjoy a lunch local coastal specialties. Please note: There are locker rooms and bathrooms on site, as well as a place to buy food and beverages.
