

A Week in Ancient Greece: Athens, Delphi & Olympia

9 days | 12 days with Crete & Athens extension

Rich history, rugged ruins, remarkable beauty—you can find it all in Greece. And on this tour, you'll experience the country's wonders coming alive as the summer heat dies down and the locals return to their daily routines. Let the echoes of antiquity wash over you as you monument-hop in Athens, Delphi, Olympia, and Nafplio, unbothered by the peak season's typical crowds. To dig even further back in time, add the trip's extension to Crete—Greece's largest and most populous island—for a study of the Minoan civilization, and discover a culture that predated even Socrates by centuries.

Day 3: Cape Sounion

$75/$85* (4.5 hours, departure time varies)

Journey to the southern tip of the Attica Peninsula to take in the sights of the Poseidon Coast, including sandy beaches, natural and manmade harbors, and, of course, the Aegean Sea itself. High above the sparkling shoreline, the Temple of Poseidon dominates the landscape. Of the original structure, 16 elegant Doric pillars remain. Afterward, decide how you'd like to spend your free time. Take a moment to look out from the lofty cliffside vantage point, where you can see five Aegean islands on a clear day. You may also choose to enjoy a coffee, stop in the souvenir shop, or stroll through the area. Please note: This excursion involves some walking on uneven terrain.

Join a local at their home in Athens to enjoy traditional dishes and dine like a true Grecian. During this dinner, you'll receive an authentic understanding of your host's day-to-day life while learning about Greek culture and traditions from a new perspective. Please note: Your Tour Director will not attend this excursion. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 4: Arachova Village & Greek Dinner

$79/$89* (4 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

This evening, visit Arachova, a picturesque town at the foot of Mount Parnassus. Begin with a visit to the Convent of the Prophet Elias, an abbey that dates back to the 11th century. Examine its ornate Greek ecclesiastical wood carvings, then head back into town. The evening is yours to explore Arachova, stroll its cobblestone streets, and admire its Byzantine churches before capping the day with a traditional Greek dinner at a village restaurant.

Day 7: Mycenae & Nemea Wine Tasting

$85/$95* (5 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Head to the UNESCO-listed Archaeological site of Mycenae, an important city in the Mycenaean civilization that's linked to Homer's famous Greek epics, the Iliad and the Odyssey. You'll take a guided tour of the citadel, which was once home to 30,000 people. Then, visit a winery in Nemea for a tasting of four to five local wines paired with snacks, before transferring back to Nafplio.

Extension excursion options

Day 10: Chania

$119/$129* (8 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Travel to historic Chania, where a local guide introduces you to the city's Old Town. You'll visit Chania's cathedral before a walk through the Venetian quarter, where you'll step inside Etz Hayyim, the only synagogue on the island of Crete and a symbol of the city's enduring Jewish community. After exploring the synagogue, your guided tour ends at the port, where you'll visit an ancient Turkish Ottoman mosque. Lunch is included on this excursion, as is free time to get to know this beautiful city at your own pace. Please note: Etz Hayyim is closed on Sundays.

Day 11: Athens Home-Hosted Dinner

$79 (3 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)
