Day 3: Food of Tel Aviv Walking Tour

$95/$105* (2 hours, Departure time varies)

Dive into Tel Aviv's market culture and discover a world of appetizing aromas, vibrant colors, delicious flavors, and entertaining vendors. Meet up with a local guide and explore one of the city's famous markets, where you'll learn about its history and the importance of similar commercial hubs to local culture. As you explore, you'll enjoy tastings of local specialties, like khachapuri (a boat-shaped, cheese-filled bread), tahini ice cream, and falafel.

Hop aboard a boat at the Aqaba port and cruise out to the Aqaba Marine Park. This park is part of the larger Red Sea Marine Peace Park, which is protected by both the Jordanian and Israeli governments. The array of coral reefs and incredible underwater visibility make the Red Sea coral reefs one of the best spots in the world to snorkel. Discover how these two countries work together to protect the ecosystem's natural beauty and wildlife. Then, hop in the water to view the colorful coral and fish for yourself.

Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent.

Day 4: Bethlehem & the Church of the Nativity

$85/$95* (5 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Travel to Bethlehem, a Palestinian city known as the birthplace of Jesus. Inhabited by one of the world's oldest Christian communities, the town is also believed to be the birthplace of King David and the final resting place of Abrahamic patriarch Rachel. Upon arrival, use your free time to grab something to eat. On your tour through the city, you'll stop at the Church of the Nativity, where Christians believe Mary gave birth to Jesus. You'll also explore the Old City and Manger Square. The remainder of your time in Bethlehem is free time for souvenir shopping. Please note: Travelers on this excursion must carry their passport in order to clear the security checkpoint at the Israeli-Palestinian border crossing.

Extension excursion options

Day 15: Nile River Felucca Ride & Dinner

$85/$95* (4 hours, departs in the afternoon, dinner included)

Board a felucca, a traditional Egyptian sailboat, in Luxor and relax as you float down the Nile River. You'll view the east and west banks of the river and soak in views of the Temples of Karnak and Luxor as you learn about the lifestyle of the people who live in this region of the country. Make a stop at Banana Island to enjoy some tea and snacks. Then, head back to the boat to watch the sun dip below the horizon before disembarking and heading to a local restaurant. You'll dine on traditional Egyptian cuisine paired with beer and wine.

Day 5: Jerusalem by Night & Dinner

$135/$145* (3 hours, departs in the evening)

Start the evening at a local restaurant where you'll indulge in an authentic Israeli dinner. Then, witness Jerusalem lit up at night and gain a unique view of this historic city. Your tour departs after dinner, making its first stop in Mea Shearim, one of Jerusalem's oldest neighborhoods. Your motor coach will bring you past illuminated walls and churches before arriving at the ruins of the Tower of David, where you'll enjoy a spectacular sound-and-light show.

Day 6: Masada, the Dead Sea & Kfar Hanokdim Bedouin Camp

$185/$195* (12 hours, departs in the morning, lunch and dinner included)

Journey by cable car up to Mount Masada, a plateau-top fortification in the desert. It served as the last stronghold of the First Jewish-Roman War and remains a controversial part of Jewish history. You'll then venture to the Dead Sea, where you might have time to float in the famously salty waters before enjoying lunch. Later, you'll visit the village of Kfar Hanokdim for a traditional Bedouin dinner.

Day 9: Red Sea: Boat Ride & Coral Reef Snorkeling

$125/$135* (3 hours, departs in the afternoon)
