Day 3: Giant's Causeway Cliff Walk

$99/$109* (6 hours, departure time varies)

Pay a visit to the rugged Giant's Causeway, a series of 40,000 naturally formed basalt columns. The hexagonal columns, which you can walk on, are 60 million years old and originated as volcanic lava. A colorful local legend says that mythical giant Finn McCool built the walkway so that he could cross the sea to Scotland. Explore the Giant's Causeway Visitor's Center to learn more about its history. You'll also have the option to join your Tour Director for a cliff walk to soak in spectacular views of the causeway and coastline. On a clear day, you can see Scotland and a stretch of the beautiful northern Irish coastline. Please note: Raingear is recommended for this excursion. The cliff walk is optional and travelers can opt to enjoy the visitors center at their own pace.

Day 7: Glen Keen Farm & Dinner

$149 (5.5 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Glen Keen Farm is one of the largest sheep farms in Ireland and while here, you'll learn about sheep farming while soaking in the natural beauty that defines the area. First, watch an interactive sheep herding demonstration followed by a guided walk to a nearby ring fort. These fortified settlements can be found all throughout Ireland and most were built during the Bronze Age. Then, head back to the farm for a traditional dinner of Glen Keen Farm Lamb Stew, dessert, coffee, and tea. Please note: Vegetarian options are available for the included dinner. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Extension excursion options

Day 11: Dingle Peninsula Walk & Whiskey Tasting

$99/$109* (8 hours, departs in the morning)

Spend the day getting to know the dramatically rugged terrain of the Dingle Peninsula. Take a scenic drive to the Blasket Centre, where you'll embark on a coastal walk along the Lú na Cille loop trail. This two-hour hike is filled with incredible views of the Irish coastline and farmlands. After, head to the charming, colorful town of Dingle. You'll have free time to visit the shops and restaurants before heading to Dingle Distillery. Join a local guide for a tour of the distillery, which produces whiskey, gin, and vodka. Sit down to enjoy a tasting of their signature whisky, which the distillers have been producing in small, craft batches since 2015.
