Day 3: Japanese Cooking Class & Dinner

$125 (3 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Tonight, join an experienced chef at a local restaurant for a cooking lesson and dinner. Grab your apron and watch as the chef demonstrates how to make traditional Japanese cuisine such as gyudon, miso soup, cucumber pickles, or a chicken teriyaki bento box. Then, try your hand at crafting your own authentic meal before sitting down to enjoy the cuisine for dinner. Please note: It may not be possible to accommodate requests related to food allergies. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 4: Kamakura

$135 (8 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Step aboard a local train in Tokyo and make your way to the seaside city of Kamakura, where you'll explore the countryside, temples, and shrines on a guided walking tour. Pay a visit to the city's famous Great Buddha and Hase Kannon Temples. Then, sit down for an included lunch and enjoy free time to peruse the arts and crafts for sale along Komachi Shopping Street before transferring back to Tokyo on the train. Please note: Travelers should expect to walk around 10,000 steps along even terrain. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 8: Traditional Japanese Tea Ceremony

$59 (2 hours, departs in the evening)

Since its introduction to Japan in the 700s, the love for tea has only grown. The beverage is celebrated by cafe-goers as much as it is by tea masters, and today you'll see why. Join a tea master to learn about the customs of a traditional ceremony and the function of the various utensils used during it. Then, discover the meaning of the symbolic gestures you'll make as you try matcha. This form of green tea is ground into a powder and known for its bright hue. As you sip some tea you'll snack on wagashi, Japanese sweets often made from red beans, which nicely balance the bitterness of the matcha tea. Please note: Depending on the number of travelers, you may be split into two groups. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 9: Arashiyama District & Okochi Sanso Garden

$119/$129* (6 hours, departs in the morning)

Depart from Kyoto and enjoy a short transfer as you travel west to Arashiyama. This historic district boasts stunning natural beauty, and you'll take it all in on a guided sightseeing tour. Step inside the UNESCO-listed Tenryū-ji Temple, which was originally constructed in the 12th century and is considered one of Kyoto's most important sites. Meander through the striking Bamboo Grove, where soaring stalks flank a singular pathway. Finally, see the rolling, tree-covered hills that surround the Hozu River and the Togetsukyo Bridge. Spanning almost 170 feet, the beautiful wooden bridge sits against the backdrop of Arashiyama mountain.

Afterwards, head to the beautiful Okochi Sanso Garden located in the foothills of Mt. Ogura and was the former home to Japanese period film star Okochi Denjiro until 1962. Upon arrival, you'll enter the Okochi villa's tea house to enjoy a matcha drink tasting followed by a leisurely stroll through the gardens. Wander along winding paths surrounded by lush greenery and amazing views of Kyoto, the Kozugaway river, and the Arashiyama mountains. Please note: The walk through the garden is roughly one mile. Travelers who wish to not participate in the garden walk may remain at the tea house or explore the gardens on their own.

Extension excursion options

Day 12: Osaka by Night: Cruise & Dinner

$125/$135* (5 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Hop aboard a river cruise and admire the glittering skyline as you float along Osaka Bay. Then, get a taste of local life as you follow a guide on a walking tour of the dynamic Dotonbori Riverfront. Explore Namba, a bustling neighborhood along the water with some of Osaka's best shops, restaurants, and entertainment before heading to a local restaurant to enjoy an included dinner. End the night with a subway ride back to your hotel.
