Day 3: Oaxacan Cooking Class & Dinner

$139/$149* (4 hours, departs in the evening with dinner)

During tonight's cooking class, learn the secrets of traditional Oaxacan cuisine, known for its flavorful mole sauces, chocolate, and tamales. Prep regional recipes under the guidance of local chefs, then enjoy the dishes you've prepared at an included dinner.

Day 3: Ancient Mexico: Monte Albán

$65/$75* (3 hours, departs in the morning)

Today, follow in the footsteps of Mexico's ancient Zapotec people during a visit to Monte Albán. This is one of the country's UNESCO-recognized archaeological sites. Here you'll explore the ruins of a city that was once a thriving economic and political center, and is thought to be one of the earliest in Mesoamerica. Your guided tour takes you past towering pyramids, ceremonial rock carvings, a large ball court, and tombs that all give insight into the culture of this ancient civilization.

Day 5: Historic Cholula

$59/$69* (4 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Discover where civilizations intersect on today's tour of Cholula. Start by entering the Great Pyramid of Cholula, an Aztec temple dedicated to the god Quetzalcoatl. Wind your way through its tunnels and climb up to the top to take in the spectacular views of the surrounding scenery and volcanoes in the distance. See Our Lady of Remedies, the Spanish church that sits on top of the same hill that the pyramid is built into. Afterward, make your way into the nearby city of San Andrés Cholula for visits to the Baroque San Francisco Acatepec and Santa María Tonanzintla churches. Cap off your tour with a walk through the city's main square, passing by the Royal Chapel, San Gabriel Convent and Plaza de la Concordia as you go.

Day 6: Mexico City Home-Hosted Dinner

$109/$119* (3 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Head to Mexico City's trendy La Condesa neighborhood, which is known for its beautiful avenues and historic architecture. Join a local at their home in the neighborhood to enjoy traditional dishes and dine like a true Mexican. You'll sit under a Jacaranda tree on the rooftop and sip artisanal mezcal or tequila. Then, enjoy salad, salsa, meat, poultry, and seafood dishes during a multi-course meal served with beer or wine. During this dinner, you'll receive an authentic understanding of your host's day-to-day life while learning about Mexican culture and traditions from a new perspective.

Day 7: Coyoacán & Frida Kahlo Museum

$69/$79* (5 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Known for its tree-lined cobblestone streets, colonial estates and artisanal markets, Mexico City's Coyoacán neighborhood is not to be missed. Set out to explore this charming corner of the city on a guided tour, taking in Plaza Hidalgo and the iconic Centenario Garden. This artsy area was once home to celebrated painter, Frida Kahlo. Learn about her life and view personal items and selections of her work at the Frida Kahlo Museum, housed in the artist's lifelong home. After your visit, enjoy free time to peruse the Coyoacán Market and Mercado de Antojitos.

Day 8: Teotihuacán Archaeological Site & Guadalupe Shrine

$95/$105* (8 hours, departs in the morning)

Set out into the Mexican countryside to explore the UNESCO-protected Teotihuacán. An ancient city with unknown origins, this once-great metropolis lay abandoned for years before the Aztec discovered and eventually named it. The mystery of its original inhabitants remains unsolved, but at its peak it was the largest city in pre-Colombian America. Explore the city's expansive ruins on a guided tour. Walk along the the Avenue of the Dead, once the main street, to view the many different sites flanking this road. You'll see the most notable pyramids including the Pyramid of the Moon and the Pyramid of the Sun, which is the third-largest in the world. You can opt to climb to the top of the Sun and Moon pyramids for incredible views of the region. Your tour also takes you past the Temple of the Feathered Serpent and the Citadel. Enjoy free time for lunch before heading back to Mexico City to enter the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe. This Roman Catholic church is a national shrine and the western hemisphere's most-visited pilgrimage site. The basilica is built on the site where the Virgin Mary is said to have appeared in 1531. It also houses the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe and the cloak Saint Juan Diego wore during the five Marian apparitions. You'll visit both the old and new basilicas during your visit and have time to visit the museum at your leisure.

Extension excursion options

Day 11: Cenotes Sac Actún & Akumal Bay Snorkeling

$159/$169* (5 hours, departs in the morning)

Cenotes are picturesque networks of flooded caves and today you'll visit one of the region's largest and most beautiful—Cenotes Sac Actún. Snorkel in the pool's crystal clear water with a local guide before enjoying free time to explore, swim, and discover more of the stunning underground cave system. Then, travel to Akumal Bay and eat lunch at your leisure. This bay is located along Riviera Maya on the Caribbean Sea and is famous for its rays, nurse sharks, barracudas, and lobsters. Take a snorkeling tour of Akumal Bay to view the variety of colorful fish and coral reefs. You'll also want to keep your eyes peeled for green sea turtles that frequently visit and nest in the bay. After spending your day snorkeling in both the unique cenote jungle caves and at a Caribbean coral reef, travel back to Playa del Carmen. Please note: Snorkeling gear and changing rooms are provided on-site. We recommend bringing a bathing suit, towel, and change of clothes.
