Enjoy a free day in Santander or add an excursion.

+ Picos de Europa

Oviedo → 1 night

Day 6: Oviedo via Santillana del Mar & Altamira National Museum

Included meals: breakfast, tasting, dinner

Head toward Oviedo, stopping to take in some of Spain's impressive historical sites.

- Take a guided tour of the Altamira National Museum and Research Centre, which houses an exact replica of the Altamira Caves and the Paleolithic cave paintings that revolutionized archaeology when Marcelino Sanz de Sautuola discovered them in 1879
- Enjoy a leisurely stroll through the well-preserved medieval village of Santillana del Mar
- View the 11th-century Collegiate Church before enjoying free time

Then, continue on to Oviedo—capital of Spain's Asturias province and home to several UNESCO World Heritage sites—and take in its highlights on a walking tour with a local guide.

- Make your way through the Gothic Quarter and enter the Roman Catholic Oviedo Cathedral, an important pilgrimage site along the Camino del Norte route
- Sample some local Asturias cheese to cap off your tour

This evening, tour a cider house and learn about the cider production process from a staffer.

Afterward, sample hard ciders, including some straight out of the barrel. Then, sit down for an included dinner at the cider house.

Santiago de Compostela → 2 nights

Day 7: Santiago de Compostela via Lugo

Included meals: breakfast

En route to Santiago de Compostela, stop in the city of Lugo to explore its massive, UNESCO-listed Roman walls, which date back to the third century.

Continue along your way, and stop at the hilltop viewpoint known as Monte Viso to enjoy panoramic vistas of the Santiago de Compostela skyline.

Day 8: Sightseeing tour of Santiago de Compostela

Included meals: breakfast

Walk through Santiago de Compostela, a town that once ranked just behind Jerusalem and Rome as one of Christendom's most important pilgrimage sites.

- Stroll along the ancient city's narrow streets and stop at Parque de la Alameda
- Enter the Gothic Santiago de Compostela Cathedral, which marks the end of the Way of St. James

Enjoy free time in Santiago de Compostela or add an excursion.

Day 3: Guernica, the Basque Coast & Pintxos Dinner

$99/$109* (6 hours, departs in the afternoon, includes dinner)

Travel to the town of Guernica, where you'll meet up with a local guide and hear about the history of the bombings that took place in the city during the Spanish Civil War. Pass by important icons of the city, including the Tree of Guernica and the Assembly House, and view a mural of Picasso's world-famous Guernica painting. Afterward, travel along the Basque coast to the colorful village of Bermeo. Explore the harbor and meet with the neskattilas, or women of the sea, in the fishing village. Sit down at a local restaurant for a delicious pintxos dinner served with txakoli wine. As you continue along the coast, stop to enjoy panoramic views of the Islet of San Juan de Gaztelugatxe—a popular Game of Thrones filming spot—and to watch the sunset on Bakio's Beach before returning to Bilbao.

Day 5: Picos de Europa

$115/$125* (9 hours, departs in the morning with lunch)

Arrive at the Picos de Europa, or the Peaks of Europe, so named because they were often the first sight of land for sailors returning to Europe from the Atlantic. Once there, enter the caves and basilica of Covadonga Sanctuary to see the famous shrine to the Virgin of Covadonga. Then, board your coach for the short drive into Picos de Europa National Park to visit the glacial Lakes of Covadonga. Enjoy a brief walk along the lakes to snap photos and soak in the park's grand, mountain scenery. From there, continue on to Cangas de Onís, Spain's first capital city, for a walking tour that includes a visit to its ancient Roman Bridge. Enjoy a three-course lunch in town, followed by free time to explore on your own.

Day 8: Rías Baixas Cruise & Galician Lunch

$115/$125* (5 hours, departs in the afternoon, includes lunch)

Start the afternoon with a traditional Galician seafood lunch in Rías Baixas before making your way to the tiny fishing town of O Grove for a cruise. Then, enjoy a cruise along the Rías Baixas, the coastal inlets and estuaries of western Galicia. Sailing through the town's harbor, you'll discover this region's maritime heritage. Get a taste of local cuisine; you'll be treated to local mussels and Albariño wine while aboard the boat. After disembarking your cruise, travel to the beautiful fishing village of Combarro, which is built atop a rock. Here, you'll walk through the winding streets, admiring traditional Galician houses and horreos, or fishermen houses, before returning to Santiago de Compostela. Please note: The cruise portion of this excursion is dependent upon weather.

Day 10: Salamanca Countryside Food & Wine Tasting Tour

$105/$115* (5 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Make your way to the countryside outside of Salamanca, where you'll be treated to some of the area's most delicious products. Visit a local finca farmhouse and sit down for a tasting of house-made wine and cheese. After, head to a jamon factory to learn about Spain's finest ham and to sample jamon and other local products.

Extension excursion options

Day 13: Toledo

$99/$109* (8 hours, departure time varies)

Discover Toledo, the cliff-top city often referred to as La Ciudad Imperial ("The Imperial City"). Upon arrival, you'll have some free time to explore. Later in the afternoon, your guided tour begins at Toledo Cathedral, a massive, Gothic structure that houses 750 medieval stained glass windows and a treasure trove of golden artifacts. Gaze upon the cathedral's sacristy, containing masterpieces by the likes of van Dyck, El Greco, Rubens, and Titian. After exploring the labyrinth of medieval alleyways at the heart of the city, you'll visit the Church of Santo Tomé and one of Europe's oldest synagogues, Santa María la Blanca. Please note: This tour involves some walking over uneven terrain. Also, depending on the day of the week, the sites visited are subject to change.
