Day 5: Queenstown Kiwi Wildlife Park

$75CAD/$85CAD* (2 hours, departs in the morning)

The five-acre, family-owned Queenstown Kiwi Park is home to more than 20 native species of wildlife that are either recovering from injuries or part of the organization's impressive conservation program. Today, pay a visit to the park and its specially designed nocturnal house, where you'll observe and learn more about New Zealand's famous, flightless bird. View more birds during the park's Conservation Show, which highlights the animals' intelligence, as well as the threats they face. Cap off your visit with a self-guided, at-your-own-pace audio tour, following the park's trails and spotting grey warblers, New Zealand falcons, fantails, and other native species.

Day 5: Walter Peak: Lake Cruise & Dinner

$169CAD/$179CAD* (4 hours, departs in the evening with dinner)

Board the steam-powered TSS Earnslaw in Queenstown for a cruise across Lake Wakatipu. Your destination is Walter Peak, one of New Zealand's most famous sheep and cattle stations. There, you'll enjoy a barbecue dinner and watch a sheep-shearing demonstration and sheepdog show before heading back to Queenstown. Please note: This excursion is seasonal and runs January to May and from October to December. A weatherproof jacket and comfortable shoes are recommended.

Day 7: Franz Josef Glacier Helicopter Ride

$325CAD/$335CAD* (1 hour, departs in the morning)

Get close to the ice falls of Franz Josef Glacier during a 20-minute helicopter ride and experience the solitude of a snow landing in this natural alpine wonderland. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent. Depending on hotel location, you may leave from Fox Glacier on some departures.

Day 9: Waka Tour: Traditional Māori Canoe Adventure

$149CAD/$159CAD* (3 hours, departs in the morning)

Hop inside a waka, a traditional Māori canoe, and admire the beauty of Abel Tasman National Park from the water. The Māori people traditionally used wakas to fish and travel long distances. You'll learn the tikanga, or etiquette, associated with steering a waka and familiarize yourself with the canoe. Then, receive a karakia, or blessing, for protection before you set sail. Paddle to Split Apple Rock and soak in the views from one of the most scenic spots on the coastline. You'll learn more about why the waka is an integral part of Māori culture from your local guide. End your trip with another karakia. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent.

Day 15: A Day on Waiheke Island: Olive Oil & Wine Tasting

$199CAD/$209CAD* (6.5 hours, departs in the morning, tasting included)

Board a ferry and settle in for a scenic cruise across the Auckland Harbour to Waiheke Island. Upon arrival at the wharf, take in spectacular views of the Hauraki Gulf and the Coromandel Peninsula as you drive along the scenic northern route. Visit Rangihoua Estate, a bustling olive oil mill. The first olive oils from the North Island were produced here and since then, Rangihoua has created many award-winning olive oils. Here, you'll learn how the oil is produced and taste a range of different oils such as the peppery Greek-style Koreneiki, the Spanish-style Picual, or the Tuscan-style Frantoio, as well as island blends. Additionally, you'll get to taste their local honey and herb spread. Continue on to Peacock Sky, a boutique vineyard, for a wine tasting. The owners create sparkling wine, Chardonnay, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Merlot malbec on-site. You'll sample some of these wines paired with light snacks. End the day in Oneroa Village where you'll have free time to eat lunch at a local cafe or restaurant, or visit the many art galleries and boutique shops. With the beach close by, you may also take some time to explore the coast and soak in the spectacular views. Then, board the ferry back to Auckland.

Extension excursion options

Day 18: A Day on Tivua Island: Sailing & Snorkeling

$199CAD/$209CAD* (7 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Set sail on a scenic cruise to Fiji's Tivua Island, a small tropical paradise surrounded by stunning coral reefs. When you're not enjoying afternoon tea or an included buffet lunch, the day will be yours to spend as you'd like. Soak up some sun on the white-sand beach or lounge in a hammock for the ultimate in relaxation. When you're ready to cool off, paddle around the island in a kayak, board a glass-bottom boat with a marine biologist, or hop in the water for guided snorkeling. Back on shore, there will be plenty of opportunities to get acquainted with local culture as you take part in a traditional Kava ceremony, watch a coconut husking demonstration, or learn about herbal medicine on a nature walk. Please note: The Fijian sun is very hot and bringing a sun hat and sunscreen is recommended. If you'd like to enjoy the water, be sure to pack a towel and swimwear.
