Day 2: Monumental Callao: Street Art & Food Tour
$130CAD/$140CAD* (4 hours, departs in the morning)

Spend some time exploring one of the area's most colorful and creative areas—the Callao district. This seaside spot is located about 10 miles west of Lima and is home to lively culture, stunning street art, and delicious food. Travel to the Historic Center of Callao and join a local for a guided tour. Stroll through the iconic streets to see the historic architecture surrounding Plaza Matriz and along the port. You'll also see the colorful, artistic graffiti that tells the story of the chalacos (that's what people from Callao call themselves!). You'll learn how local artists reclaimed the history of their city through the Fugaz initiative and why they chose to express their culture through inventive street art that covers buildings across the Monumental Callao neighborhood. Pair your immersive art lesson with some tasty small bites when you visit a few local eateries to sample some of the city's best flavors. End the day by soaking in panoramic views from the rooftop of Casa Fugaz before heading back to Lima.

Day 4: Cuzco Cooking Class & Dinner
$165CAD/$175CAD* (3 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

During this cooking class you'll mix, toss, and stir up some of Peru's most well-known—and delicious—foods. Head to one of the top local restaurants in Cuzco, which offers beautiful views of Plaza de Armas. You'll participate in a hands-on lesson where a Peruvian chef will teach you how to make two classic dishes, causa de pollo and tiradito de trucha. The first is a cold appetizer featuring chicken and potato, while the second is a flavorful trout dish. Then, sit down to enjoy the meal you prepared with a glass of beer or wine. Please note: The venue may change based on group size and departure date.

Day 7: Misminay Village Home-Hosted Lunch, Moray & Maras

$149CAD/$159CAD* (8 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Spend the morning learning about the roots of the Sacred Valley. Start in Misminay, an ancient community located over 12,000 feet above sea level in the Sacred Valley. You'll enjoy spectacular views of the Sacred Valley and snow-capped mountains as you meet the local villagers. Learn about the traditional agricultural, weaving techniques, and daily activities of the 500 families who live in the community. You'll also have the chance to taste the local Chicha corn beer they produce. Then, sit down to enjoy an included lunch cooked by the ladies of Misminay. The meal will feature naturally cultivated ingredients harvested from the area, paired with live Andean music from the community musicians. After lunch, take a 45-minute downhill hike to Moray, the site of famous Incan ruins that feature large circular terraces used for agricultural experiments. Then continue by bus to Maras, known for its patchwork of terraced salt-evaporation ponds that have been used since pre-Incan times.

Extension excursion options

Day 10: Amazon Canopy Walk
$225CAD/$235CAD* (8 hours, departs in the morning)

Go deep into the Amazon for a treetop walk. The day starts with breakfast under the palm-thatched roofs of the ExplorNapo Lodge on the Napo River. Next, hike to the spectacular Canopy Walkway for a bird's-eye view of the rainforest, taking in the lush plants and wildlife along the way. Afterward, visit the ReNuPeRu Ethnobotanical Garden. A local shaman will explain how the 240 plants cultivated here are used for healing.
