Porto → 2 nights

Day 2: Arrival in Porto

Included meals: welcome dinner

Welcome to Portugal! Settle in to your hotel in the heart of this 2,000-year-old, UNESCO-listed city. Later, meet your Tour Director and fellow travelers at a welcome dinner.

Day 3: Sightseeing tour of Porto

Included meals: breakfast

Get to know Porto—Portugal's second-largest city—like a true tripeiro, or Porto resident, as you explore the city on a walking tour with your local guide.

- Wander through the lanes of the medieval Ribeira district and along the picturesque Douro Riverfront.
- Pass icons, such as the Baroque-style Clérigos Tower, the Gothic São Francisco Church, and the wrought-iron Maria Pia Bridge.
- Step inside the city's famed, neoclassical Stock Exchange Palace, which was built in the 19th century.

Enjoy a free afternoon in Porto or add an excursion.

+ Douro River Cruise & Port Wine Cellar Visit

Évora → 2 nights

Day 4: Évora via Coimbra

Included meals: breakfast, dinner

Drive south and stop to explore Coimbra—a city perched on the banks of the Rio Mondego, and Portugal's former capital—on a guided walking tour.

- Visit Coimbra University—Portugal's first university and one of the oldest in Europe.
- Marvel at the many Romanesque and Gothic buildings that stand in Coimbra's Old City and along the riverbanks.
- Enjoy free time in Coimbra for lunch.

Later, settle in to your hotel in Évora. Situated among cork groves in the Alentejo region, the town is known for its picturesque, rolling hills, its compact, walled city, and its Roman, Moorish, and royal roots. Here, you'll join your group for an included dinner this evening.

Day 5: Sightseeing tour of Évora

Included meals: breakfast

Join a local guide for a walking tour of UNESCO-recognized Évora, one of Europe's oldest continuously inhabited cities.

- Take in the region's whitewashed homes and intricate tilework.
- Wander through the city's quaint historic center.
- See the Roman Temple of Diana.
- Enter St. Francis Church and its 16th-century Chapel of Bones, the latter of which monks built to house human bones that had been taking up valuable land in the city's 40-plus cemeteries.

Spend a free afternoon in Évora or add an excursion.

+ Olive Oil Farm, Alentejo Wine Tasting & Dinner

Lisbon → 3 nights

Day 6: Lisbon via Alentejo cork factory

Continue on to Lisbon and enjoy a free evening or add an excursion.

+ Fado Show & Dinner

Day 7: Sightseeing tour of Lisbon

Included meals: breakfast, tasting

Set off on a guided sightseeing tour of Lisbon, Portugal's colorful capital city, aboard your coach.

- Stop at Eduardo VII Park to take photos and enjoy panoramic views of the city.
- Back on board your coach, drive along Avenida de Liberdade and past Lisbon's important landmarks, including the busy

Praça Marquês de Pombal roundabout, the Rossio rail station, with its pair of horseshoe-shaped front doors, and the Santa Justa lift, a 19th-century Industrial Age marvel turned beloved visitor attraction.

- Stop at the waterfront to discover the city's maritime heritage at the Monument to the Discoveries and Belém Tower, the latter of which served as a point of embarkation and disembarkation for Portuguese explorers.
- View the outside of the church at Jerónimos Monastery, which was built in honor of voyagers.
- Visit a local bakery to taste pastéis de nata, a famous Portuguese custard tart.
- Make your way to Placa do Comercio and walk to Casa de Bicos, or the House of Spikes, a 16th-century palace whose facade is covered with more than 1,000 spike-shaped stones.

Spend a free evening in the city or add an excursion.

Day 9: Departure

Included meals: breakfast (excluding early morning departures)

Transfer to the airport for your flight home or extend your stay in Lisbon.

+ the Algarve Region & Lisbon extension

Situated along Portugal's southern coast, the Algarve is known for its golden beaches, towering sea cliffs, lavish golf resorts, and charming fishing villages. And after a week spent exploring the country's bustling cities, it's the perfect place to slow down and enjoy a taste of laid-back living. During your visit, explore the region's dramatic coastline, soak up the charm of its historic, small towns, and get your fill of freshly caught seafood in its waterfront restaurants and bars. Then, say "adeus" to this otherworldly paradise and spend one last evening in lively Lisbon before catching your flight home.

Algarve Region → 2 nights

Day 9: Transfer to the Algarve Region & sightseeing tour of Silves

Included meals: breakfast, dinner

Transfer to the sun-soaked Algarve region and join your Tour Director on a walk through the historic town of Silves, the Algarve's original capital. Then, enjoy free time to relax and explore Silves at your leisure. Sit down for an included dinner this evening.

Day 10: Lagos, Sagres & Cape St. Vincent

Included meals: breakfast

Spend a free morning in the Algarve region or add an excursion.

Then, discover the white-sand beaches, dramatic coastline, and small towns of the Algarve region, southern Portugal's beachy hot spot.

- Visit the seafaring town of Lagos.
- Marvel at the towering, coastal rock spires of Ponta da Piedade.
- Enter Sagres Fortress and admire stunning views of the sea.
- Make a photo stop at Cape St. Vincent to soak in the scenery from the southwesternmost point in mainland Europe.

Please note: On some departures the Algarve Coastal Cruise excursion may take place on the morning of day 11.

Day 3: Douro River Cruise & Port Wine Cellar Visit

$89/$99* (3.5 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Float along the beautiful Douro, the Iberian Peninsula's third-longest river. Take in scenes of Porto's vibrant waterfront and the historic city of Vila Nova de Gaia, home to the region's centuries-old port wine warehouses. As you cruise, you'll drift under five of the river's most iconic Old-World bridges, passing colorful hillside villas and traditional rabelos (flat-bottomed boats) along the way. Back on shore, pay a visit to one of Porto's most prestigious wine cellars. During the guided tour, learn about the long history of port wine, as well as the ins and outs of its production and warehousing. Then, sit down to taste three of the cellar's world-famous vintages.

Journey to the UNESCO World Heritage-listed town of Sintra and learn why the poet Lord Byron once called it a "glorious Eden." Get a glimpse into royal life during a guided tour of the 19th-century, romanticist Pena Palace. Take a bus and mini-train ride up to this story-book, mountaintop site, which boasts picturesque gardens and sweeping views of the Portuguese countryside. After your tour, you'll have free time to stroll through Sintra, viewing its colorful villas, small shops, and impeccably manicured gardens. On your way back to Lisbon, take in the coastal scenery of the Portuguese Riviera. You'll also stop in the old fishing village of Cascais to enjoy free time to discover the town's winding, narrow streets, and pastel-colored buildings. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 5: Olive Oil Farm, Alentejo Wine Tasting & Dinner

$149/$159* (6 hours, departs in the afternoon, includes lunch)

Spend the day learning more about some of Portugal's signature exports on this excursion. Join a local guide for a tour of an olive grove and farm, where you'll learn about olive oil production and the importance of the olive grove ecosystem. Sample the olive oil, along with some regional tapas made with homemade products, before making your way to a local vineyard. With your guide, hear about viticulture and the history of the estate. After, sit down for a three-course dinner and wine tasting led by a sommelier. Enjoy free time to shop for wine and other local products before transferring back to your hotel.

Extension excursion options

Day 10: Algarve Coastal Cruise

$55/$65* (2 hours, departure time varies)

The Algarve Coast is incredible from the land—and even more impressive from the water. Board a boat in Lagos and sail along spectacular cliffs and beaches, including the natural rock formations and caves of the famous Ponta da Piedade. You may catch a glimpse of birds and dolphins as you cruise. Please note: This excursion is dependent on both sea conditions and the weather.

Day 6: Fado Show & Dinner

$105/$115* (3 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Spend your evening at a Lisbon tavern listening to fado. Derived from the Latin word fatum—meaning "prophecy" or "fate"—fado is Portugal's national musical treasure. Fado's traditional theme is "saudade"—a word that doesn't quite translate to English but conveys a sense of both nostalgia and longing. Dinner is included during this memorable musical evening. Please note: This excursion typically ends around 11pm.

Day 7: Lisbon Cooking Class & Dinner

$129 (4 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Under the guidance of a professional chef, you'll cook a three-course meal featuring traditional Portuguese cuisine. Learn about the country's most famous foods and the flavors that make them unique to this corner of the world. Then, enjoy eating your meal for dinner alongside a glass of regional wine. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 8: Sintra & the Portuguese Riviera

$99 (8 hours, departs in the morning)
