Day 3: Mount Pilatus

$135/$145* (4.5 hours, departs in the afternoon)

This scenic excursion begins with a cruise on Lake Lucerne. After docking, ascend 7,000-foot Mount Pilatus on the world's steepest cogwheel railway.

Legend holds that the mountain was named for Pontius Pilate, blown here by the devil after the Crucifixion.

From the peak, the views of the Alps are stunning; on a clear day, you can see for 200 miles. Toward the end of your trip, you'll return to the base of the mountain via gondola. Please note: The cruise and cogwheel railway only run from mid-May through October. During the winter months, this excursion includes the cable car ride only. If the cogwheel railway is unavailable, you'll enjoy lunch on the mountain.

season). Afterward, you'll enjoy a tasting of three different wines accompanied by lunch. Then, make your way through this UNESCO-recognized area on a cruise down the Rhine River, passing by six castles on your way from Boppard to St. Goar.

Day 7: Jungfrauoch: The Top of Europe

$215/$225* (7 hours, departs in the morning)

Take in views of the Eiger's soaring peak as you transfer through Alpine valleys to the picturesque village of Grindelwald, nestled deep in the Swiss Bernese Alps.

Here, board a train for a ride up to Jungfrauoch, a UNESCO-listed mountain pass that's popularly known as "the top of Europe," and which overlooks the largest glaciated region in the Alps. You'll have plenty of opportunities to snap photos of the surrounding mountain scenery as you make your way to the summit, more than 11,000 feet above sea level. Once at the top, enjoy free time to have lunch and explore, visiting the observatory, research station, or Ice Palace—a collection of intricately designed ice sculptures. Please note: Please be aware that you will be traveling at altitudes as high as 11,000 feet above sea level. These high altitudes can sometimes cause breathing difficulties for travelers who have heart problems or respiratory ailments.

Day 9: Alsace Wine Tasting & Dinner

$115/$125* (5 hours, departs in the afternoon, dinner included)

Drive through the picturesque vineyards that dot the Alsace countryside to the Ribeauvillé and Riquewihr regions, known for their medieval villages. Here, you'll take a tour of a traditional wine cellar before enjoying a tasting of four Alsatian varietals, including flowery Riesling and aromatic Gewurztraminer. Then, sit down to dinner in a local village restaurant for a taste of Alsatian cuisine, famous for its signature blend of German and French influences.
