Day 3: Historic Scotland & Stirling Castle

$115/$125* (6 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Visit Stirling, a town steeped in the history of the Wars of Scottish Independence. For generations, Stirling Castle held off British advances and served as a rallying point for rebellious Scots. It was within Stirling Castle that the infant Mary Stewart was crowned Mary, Queen of Scots. You'll learn more about the castle's extensive history as you follow along with an audio guide. In addition to the castle, you'll visit the town of Falkirk. While here, stop to see The Kelpies. These two 98-foot-high steel sculptures pay homage to the role horses played in Scotland's agricultural development. Then, visit the ruins of the Antonine Wall, a UNESCO World Heritage site built in 142 A.D., just 20 years after the completion of Hadrian's Wall.

Day 6: Eilean Donan Castle & Isle of Skye

$119/$129* (10 hours, departs in the morning)

Cross the Skye Bridge over Loch Alsh to the Isle of Skye, famous for its association with Bonnie Prince Charlie. Then, set off for a guided sightseeing tour of the isle, exploring the town of Portree and stopping to view the rock pinnacle known as the Old Man of Storr. Next, admire breathtaking view of Kilt Rock before taking a scenic drive through the Scottish Highlands to visit Eilean Donan Castle. Explore the iconic site, arguably the world's most photographed castle, with a local guide.

Day 7: Scottish Cèilidh

$129/$139* (4 hours, departs in the evening with dinner)

Enjoy a special evening of Scottish tradition as you witness an authentic cèilidh, an age-old Scottish celebration. Sit down to an included dinner and be serenaded by a band playing Scottish folk tunes while you dine. As the evening winds down, dancers take to the stage to perform a series of traditional dances. Then, cap it all off by joining the company on stage to try the steps for yourself.

Day 8: Abbotsford House & Melrose Abbey

$109/$119* (5 hours, departs in the afternoon with lunch)

Travel through the Scottish Borders region to Abbotsford, where you'll enjoy an included lunch. Continue on to Abbotsford House, the 19th-century estate of Sir Walter Scott. The poet designed his home in the Romantic style to imitate the elaborate baronial estates of British aristocrats. Today, it serves as a museum for Scottish memorabilia and artifacts that Walter Scott collected throughout his lifetime. Later, visit the ruins of Melrose Abbey, one of the most impressive of the four Borders abbeys. Please note: Some areas of the abbey are closed off due to masonry and damage repairs.

Day 9: St Andrews

$115/$125* (6 hours, departure time varies)

St Andrews may be most well known as the home of golf, but it's also the site of Scotland's oldest university. On this excursion, you'll pass by the 16th-century grounds of St Andrews University, the alma mater of Prince William, who met Kate Middleton here. You'll also join a local guide to enter the ruins of the town's medieval cathedral and 13th-century castle which overlooks the North Sea. After, enjoy free time in town for lunch or to visit the British Golf Museum.

Extension excursion options

Day 10: Rosslyn Chapel & Royal Yacht Britannia

$115 (5 hours, departs in the morning)

Famous for its connections to the Holy Grail as depicted in the bestselling novel "The Da Vinci Code," Rosslyn Chapel is a place shrouded in mystery and legend. Step inside with a local guide to marvel at the crypt, colorful stained glass windows, and the intricate carvings that adorn the interior pillars and arches. Then, make your way back to Edinburgh, where you'll board the Royal Yacht Britannia. Once the floating residence of Queen Elizabeth II, you'll see how the Royal Family and the ship's crew lived and worked above and below decks during its commission.

Please Note: This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure. Photography inside Rosslyn Chapel is not permitted, and a dress code of no short sleeves or shorts is strictly enforced. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 11: Palace of Holyroodhouse & Afternoon Tea

$135/$145* (5 hours, departs in the morning)

Make your way down the Royal Mile to pop by the Palace of Holyroodhouse, the King's official residence in Edinburgh. This 16th-century retreat has been the Scottish home to British monarchs for more than 600 years. Take a self-guided audio tour of the palace and gardens to learn more about the royal family. You'll walk through the state apartments, throne room, and portrait gallery, before heading outside to stroll along the pathways that wind through the manicured grounds. Then, enjoy a spot of afternoon tea complete with unlimited tea, sweet and savory pastries, plus scones served with clotted cream and jam. Please note: Photography is not permitted inside the palace.
