Day 4: Ancient Ruins: Segesta & Erice

$119/$129* (8 hours, departs in the morning)

Journey to western Sicily to visit the ancient Greek ruins of Segesta. Here, you'll view a magnificent Doric temple and an ancient Greek theater with a local guide. The temple is one of the best preserved and most beautiful Greek archaeological sites in the Mediterranean. Next, visit the well-preserved village of Erice, perched on the summit of Monte San Giuliano. The relics within Erice are fascinating, from its Phoenician walls to its Norman castles. Your guided tour of the town will take you past the town's temple and churches, touching upon the role they played in Erice's history. You'll also try almond wine and pastries during a visit to one of the town's most famous shops.

Day 8: Traditions of Sicily: Villa Lunch & Noto Village

$125/$135* (8 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Start off the day in Noto, a quaint city at the foot of the Hyblaean Mountains. As you stroll along Corso Vittorio Emanuele a local guide will give you the lay of the land, highlighting the UNESCO-recognized cathedral and the city's Baroque-style architecture. Next, travel to a rustic villa, Casa Bianca, owned and run by a Sicilian contessa. With its warm climate, open fields, and fertile soil, Sicily is home to some of Italy's finest foods. Today's authentic family-style meal showcases many of the region's delicious and varied flavors. Please note: On some departures, the excursion may depart in the afternoon and include dinner instead of lunch.

Day 10: Traditional Sicilian Dinner & Wine Tasting

$109/$119* (4 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Venture into the foothills surrounding Mt. Etna for dinner and a wine tasting at a local vineyard. Like Sicily itself, Sicilian cuisine has been profoundly influenced by the myriad cultures that have made this island their home.

Day 11: Mount Etna: Sicily's Volcanic Landscapes

$95/$105* (7 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Travel from Taormina to the base of Mount Etna, Europe's largest and highest active volcano. Here, a local guide will board your bus and you'll ascend up to 5,000 feet, stopping at a scenic vantage point to snap photos and learn about the mountain's long history of eruptions, as well as its native flora and fauna. Continue up to 6,600 feet, where you'll have free time to walk among the volcanic craters and peruse the mountainside shops before sampling local delicacies at an included three-course lunch. Please note: Comfortable shoes and layered clothing are recommended. Temperatures on the mountain are cool in the summer and can be quite chilly the rest of the year.

Extension excursion options

Day 12: Hidden Sicily: Medieval Savoca & Forza d'Agrò

$65/$75* (4 hours, departs in the morning)

Delve into the traditional Sicilian villages that served as sets for Francis Ford Coppola's "The Godfather." First, visit Savoca and tour the Church of St. Lucia and the Bar Vitelli. Walk through this medieval village and marvel at its 15th-century buildings and panoramic views of the Mediterranean sea. Continue on to Forza d'Agrò, another "hidden" Sicilian village, where you'll visit the Church of the Annunciation. Please note: The order of villages visited is subject to change. In the event that the Church of the Annunciation is closed, it may only be viewed from the outside. Please note: the visit to Forza d'Agrò is weather dependent, due to safety.

Day 13: Museo Storico dello Sbarco & Historic Catania

$65/$75* (6 hours, departs in the morning)

Explore Sicily's World War II history on a visit to the Museo Storico dello Sbarco, an interactive museum featuring striking photographs and a life-size model of a war-era bunker. Then, stroll past the Baroque architecture of Catania's historic center, a UNESCO World Heritage site. You'll see the bustling shops and cafes of Via Etnea and Via dei Crociferi, the grand Teatro Massimo Bellini and the historic Palazzo Biscari. End your tour at the beautiful Piazza del Duomo, home of the famous elephant statue, where you'll have free time for lunch.
