Day 8: Burgos & the Way of St. James Walk

$65/$75* (4 hours, departs in the afternoon)

For centuries, the revered route to the final resting place of St. James has been traversed by countless pilgrims. Today, follow in their footsteps as you make your way along a 3.7-mile portion of the trail, beginning at San Juan de Ortega for a visit to the Santuario de San Juan de Ortega. Pass through beautiful forest landscape as you travel next to the small village of Agés. Here, spend time visiting the local cafe and admiring the quaint town. Then continue on your journey to Atapuerca, the UNESCO heritage site known for its archaeological sites. Spend time in the town before transferring back to your hotel. Please note: This excursion is walking-intensive and takes place on mostly flat terrain with some hills. Sunglasses, sunscreen, and a hat are all recommended as the route does not offer much shade.

Day 10: Melide & the Way of St. James Walk

$75/$85* (4.5 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Set off from Santiago de Compostela and make your way to the town of Melide, which has been a stop along the Way of St. James since the 10th century. With a local guide leading the way, follow in the footsteps of countless pilgrims as you make your way along a 3-mile portion of the time-worn Galician path to the town of Boente. As you go, stroll through lush forest and cross medieval bridges before returning to Santiago de Compostela. Please note: This excursion is walking-intensive and takes place on mostly flat terrain with some hills. Sunglasses, sunscreen, and a hat are all recommended as the route does not offer much shade.

Day 10: Traditional Galician Dinner

$89/$99* (3 hours, departs in the evening with dinner)

For a true taste of Galicia, sit down to a succulent dinner at a local restaurant in Santiago de Compostela. Savor the freshest seafood and meat specialties Spain has to offer as you choose from a variety of menu options. As you dine, enjoy some of the region's finest wines including Ribiero, Godello, or Albariño. At the end of the meal, observe the preparation ritual of Queimada, a drink of distilled spirits blended with herbs, fruits, and spices.

Day 11: Cape Finisterre Coastal Pilgrimage

$75/$85* (5 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Join a local guide as you make your way to the Galician Coast, stopping at the Río Xallas waterfalls in Mirador de Ézaro on the way. Arrive in the traditional fishing village of Fisterra, where you'll enjoy free time to explore. Then, continue on toward Cape Finisterre, the final destination for pilgrims on the Way of St. James. End your excursion taking in picturesque views of the coastal cliffs and famous lighthouse.

Please note: The weather in autumn and winter can be cold and humid.

Extension excursion options

Day 14: Fado Show & Dinner

$105/$115* (3 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Spend your evening at a Lisbon tavern listening to fado. Derived from the Latin word fatum—meaning “prophecy” or “fate”—fado is Portugal's national musical treasure. Fado's traditional theme is saudade, a word that doesn't quite translate to English but conveys a sense of both nostalgia and longing. Dinner is included during this memorable musical evening. Please note: This excursion typically ends around 11pm.
