Day 3: Grand Canyon Helicopter Ride

$259/$269* (30 minutes, departs in the morning)

Enjoy a bird's-eye view of the Grand Canyon aboard a thrilling half-hour-long helicopter ride. Soar over the massive canyon, taking in a unique perspective of the striated terrain far below. From high above the canyon rim, you can begin to fully appreciate the immense scale of this natural wonder. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent.

Day 4: Upper Antelope Canyon & Navajo Nation

$135 (2 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Journey by truck through the Native American territory known as Navajo Nation, a historic area that covers over 27,000 square miles, as you make your way to Upper Antelope Canyon. This breathtaking slot canyon is nicknamed "Corkscrew Canyon" and has been created by the forces of wind and water over thousands of years. It's considered one of the most stunning natural structures in the American Southwest, and you'll learn more about the sandstone formation and its spiritual importance to the Native Americans in the area on a tour with a local Navajo guide. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent and will not run in the event of rain, due to the danger of flash floods. Tripods, monopods, selfie sticks, and backpacks are not allowed in the canyon. Depending on group size, travelers may be required to travel in separate trucks. Bottled water and comfortable shoes are recommended. Travelers must be able to walk 3/4 of a mile through sand/foot bridges and climb the 128 stairs when entering and exiting Antelope Canyon. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 5: Monument Valley Jeep Ride

$159/$169* (9 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Stop for lunch at the Goulding's Trading Post, one of Monument Valley's iconic, western-style buildings that was used to shoot the film "Stagecoach," starring John Wayne. Enjoy free time to explore the Gouldings Trading Post Museum and learn more about Hollywood's connection to the area. Then, climb aboard a jeep to zip through the valley's stunning red-sand scenery and pass towering sandstone buttes. Make photo stops along the way to capture iconic monuments like the Mittens, Elephant Butte, and the Three Sisters. Please note: This excursion requires a two- to three-hour bus transfer in each direction.

Extension excursion options

Day 9: Hoover Dam & Lake Mead

$85/$95* (4 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Depart from Las Vegas and make your way to the Hoover Dam, an iconic American landmark that separates the states of Nevada and Arizona. This engineering marvel was built during the Great Depression as a means to hold back the Colorado River and irrigate nearby communities, which in turn created Lake Mead. It was distinguished as the largest dam in the world after its completion in 1935, and today, has earned a designation as a National Historic Landmark. On this excursion, you'll join a local guide and learn more about the dam's fascinating construction and history. Explore the Hoover Powerplant, which produces a massive amount of hydroelectric power, and then stroll through passageways within the dam itself. End your visit in the visitor center before making your way back to Las Vegas. Please note: On this excursion, you will walk for over a mile on concrete and similar hard surfaces.

Day 10: Food of Las Vegas Walking Tour

$185 (3 hours, departure time varies)

If there's anything Las Vegas takes more seriously than casinos, it's food. From all-you-can-eat buffets to celebrity-chef restaurants to over-the-top gastronomic affairs, Sin City's got options to satisfy every appetite. Join a local guide and spend the day savoring some of the city's finest foods with a stop at Gordon Ramsay's restaurant, a taste of Giada De Laurentiis's home recipes, a slice of gourmet pizza by Andrew Weil, and desserts by Cake Boss. Plus, enjoy a glass of wine and Prosecco along the way. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

*Optional excursions may be purchased up to three days prior to departure or while on tour. Pre-purchased optional excursions cannot be canceled within three days prior to departure or while on tour. Select optional excursions require advance booking and cannot be purchased or canceled after the advanced reservation deadline.
