Day 5: Rickshaw Ride & Market

$35/$45* (1 hour, departs in the evening)

Take a cycle rickshaw to the Phitsanulok Night Market, where you'll find fresh food cooked and served to order. Watch as local cooks perform their signature "flying vegetables show," in which vegetables are fried in a wok, then tossed high into the air. Be sure to try the finished product, Pak Boong Loy Fah (or "Flying Morning Glory" in English). In addition to the food, you'll discover an astounding variety of local handicrafts, souvenirs and clothing for sale.

Day 9: Mae Kampong Hill Tribe: Village Visit & Hike

$65/$75* (6 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

The Mae Kampong Hill Tribe lives in Northern Thailand, where members of the community continue to practice and share their storied traditions. Today, you'll explore their village alongside a local guide. Begin the day with a hike through the mountains surrounding the village. You'll stop to view a waterfall as you hear about the beauty of the area from your guide. Continue into the village to learn about the traditional ways of life during a tea tasting. Farmers in the community have produced tea for over 200 years, and the area's fertile farmlands were one of the main reasons the villagers chose to live here. Then, enter the home of a village resident and get to the heart of traditional Thai cuisine during a home-hosted lunch. After enjoying some free time, travel back to Chiang Mai. Please note: We recommend travelers wear comfortable clothing and sturdy walking shoes. The hike is 60–90 minutes long uphill through the mountains. Travelers should be prepared for muddy and/or wet conditions during the rainy season.

Day 10: Lanna Family Home-Hosted Dinner

$89/$99* (4 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Make your way outside of Chiang Mai to join a local Lanna family in their open-air garden. Get a tour of the family's orchards and gardens before sitting down to enjoy a spread of traditional Thai dishes while learning about Lanna culture and traditions from your hosts.
