Day 3: Port Wine Cellar & Lunch

$119/$129* (4 hours, departs in the afternoon with lunch)

Take a cable car ride along the Douro River to Vila Nova de Gaia, where you'll enjoy lunch at a local restaurant while soaking in views of the Iberian Peninsula's third-longest river. Then, pay a visit to one of Porto's most prestigious Port wine cellars. During the guided tour, learn the long-standing history of Port wine, as well as the ins and outs of Port production and warehousing. Then, sit down to enjoy a tasting of three of the cellar's world-famous labels.

Day 4: Guimarães

$85/$95* (5 hours, departs in the morning)

Embark on a guided tour of this UNESCO-recognized city that is regarded as the "cradle of Portuguese nationality." In 1128, many political and military movements, which eventually led to the formation of Portugal, began in Guimarães. Learn about the history of these events during a visit to the medieval Palace of the Dukes of Braganza, Largo da Oliveira square, and the city's Baroque-style church. Cap your visit off with a tasting of Vinho Verde, a wine local to the region known for its refreshing qualities.

Day 9: An Evening in Portugal: Fado Show with Dinner

$119/$129* (3 hours, departs in the evening with dinner)

Spend your evening at a tavern in Lisbon listening to fado. Derived from the Latin word fatum—meaning "prophecy" or "fate"—fado is Portugal's national musical treasure. Fado's traditional theme is saudade, a word that doesn't quite translate to English but conveys a sense of both nostalgia and longing. Dinner and wine is included during this memorable musical evening.

Extension excursion options

Day 12: Madeira Fruit Farm Tour & Tasting

$69/$79* (3 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Several types of fruit grow on Madeira and play a significant role in the island's cuisine. On this excursion, you'll learn more about the natural, sweet treats—and taste them right at the source. Travel outside of Funchal and board a cliff-top cable car bound for a subtropical farm. There, you'll learn about organic farming and viticulture—as well as the island's unique infrastructure and its use of cable cars—as you walk through the lush farmland on a guided tour. During your visit, taste fresh, seasonal, and familiar fruits, such as passion fruit, bananas, papayas, mango, and avocado, along with more unique varieties, like tabaibo, the fleshy fruit of the cactus-like tabaibeira plant.

Day 13: Madeira Jeep Tour & Lunch

$99/$109* (8 hours, departs in the morning, includes lunch)

Board a 4x4 jeep for a day spent exploring Madeira's scenic, eastern side. With your driver-guide behind the wheel, wind through the mountains to Pico do Arieiro, the island's third-highest peak. Then, descend to the small, rural villages of Ribeiro Frio and Faial. Spend time exploring the Laurisilva of Madeira—a UNESCO World Heritage site and the largest surviving area of primary laurel forest, or laurisilva, a type of vegetation now only found on Madeira and in the Azores and Canary Islands. Continue on and check out the Levadas of Madeira, an important system of canals and aqueducts that carry rainwater from mountains in the center of the island to agricultural areas along its coast. Then, travel to Santana—a town on the island's northern coast that's known for its traditional stone houses with steep, triangular, thatched roofs—and sit down for an included lunch served with wine. Continue on to Ponta de São Lourenço, Madeira's easternmost peninsula, to enjoy panoramic views of dramatic, coastal cliffs, basalt rock formations, and the peninsula's own undulating terrain.

Day 14: Lisbon Home-Hosted Dinner

$89 (3 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Join a local in their home in Lisbon to enjoy traditional dishes and dine like a true Lisboaeta. During this dinner, you'll receive an authentic understanding of your host's day-to-day life while learning about Portuguese culture and traditions from a new perspective. Please note: Your Tour Director will not attend this excursion. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.
