Day 3: Concha & Toro Winery Tour with Lunch

$149/$159* (5 hours, departs in the afternoon, includes lunch)

Head just outside of Santiago to the Valle de Maipo for a visit to the renowned Viña Concha y Toro wine estate. Family-run since 1883, it is now one of the most notable wineries in the world. You'll tour the main house, where the family summered for generations. Enjoy wandering through the sprawling park grounds to marvel at the sculpted lake, and stroll along the eucalyptus-lined paths. Then, descend into the cellars and see how the winery stores its legendary wines, before sitting down for an included lunch complete with wine pairings.

Day 6: Taste of Mendoza: Tapas & Wine Tour

$55/$65* (4 hours, departs in the evening)

Tapas originated in Spain, when locals began putting a snack on top of (or tapa) their drink. Now, this bite-size dining style is sweeping Mendoza, too. Join your Tour Director for a deep dive into their small plate scene. Visit a local wine bar and enjoy an informal, light dinner of high-quality tapas dishes paired with local wines. Continue on to a microbrewery for a taste of the city's craft beers along with more tapas, before returning back to your hotel.

Day 8: Buenos Aires Tango Lesson, Show & Dinner

$105/$115* (6 hours , departs in the evening)

Buenos Aires is the birthplaces of Tango, and no trip's complete without feeling the passionate rhythm of this city's streets. So put on your dancing shoes and barrida through a private, exclusive tango lesson. Follow a master tanguero, or tango dancer, as they teach you all the steps, moves, and emotions that go into performing Argentina's national dance. Then, sit down to watch one of Buenos Aires' most renowned tango shows. Lose yourself in the live music, as elegant performers transport you to a bygone era. You'll enjoy a dinner featuring regional specialties, as well as Argentine wine, as the dancers glide toward their final abrazo.

Day 9: Argentinian Cultural Dinner

$145/$155* (4 hours, departs in the evening with dinner)

Whip up some of Argentina's signature dishes and learn about the country's food traditions during an interactive and unique dining experience. Start off by learning to make empanadas, a stuffed bread dish, and alfajores cookies. Then, try your hand at preparing mate, a traditional, caffeinated South American drink made from yerba mate leaves. After, sip on unlimited wine during a steak dinner. As you eat, you'll learn about the different cuts of Argentinian meat. At the end of the night, you'll receive the recipes for each of the dishes you made so you can recreate your Argentine meal for friends and family at home.
