Istanbul → 2 nights

Day 2: Arrival in Istanbul

Welcome to Turkey! Arrive in Istanbul—one of the world's only cities that spans two continents—and enjoy a welcome drink as you meet your Tour Director and fellow travelers.

Day 3: Sightseeing tour of Istanbul

Included meals: breakfast, welcome lunch

Set off on a tour of Istanbul's vibrant streets and historic UNESCO World Heritage sites led by your Tour Director.

- Step inside the Hagia Sophia, which held the title of the world's largest cathedral for nearly 1,000 years
- Walk to the Basilica Cistern and explore the 6th-century underground water collection area
- Visit the Hippodrome, once considered the social center of ancient Constantinople
- Enjoy an included welcome lunch at a local restaurant
- Explore the Blue Mosque, named for the blue tiles adorning its interior, and sit down to learn about Ottoman Islamic traditions
- Discover the former residence of Ottoman sultans at Topkapi Palace during a tour of the museum and palace grounds

Please note: Travelers are required to remove or cover shoes when entering the Blue Mosque. On some departures the visit to Basilica Cistern may take place on day 14.

Canakkale → 1 night

Day 4: Canakkale via Troy

Included meals: breakfast, dinner

Take a short ferry ride across the Dardanelles Strait and join your Tour Director on a guided tour of Troy, the city at the heart of Homer's "Iliad."

- Explore the Archaeological Site of Troy

- See the ruins of the city walls, temples, and buildings
 - View a replica of the famous Trojan Horse
- After, continue on to Canakkale and sit down for an included dinner.

Ephesus Region → 2 nights

Day 5: Ephesus Region via Adatepe & Edremit

Included meals: breakfast, tasting, dinner

Head south along the Aegean coast, making several stops along the way.

- Visit Adatepe, a small village in the hills above the Aegean Sea
- Walk along the cobblestone streets and have a chance to visit the elegant stone mosque
- Sample olives, olive oil, and Turkish tea at a local eatery
- Continue on to the city of Edremit to visit Nar Kadin, a collective that provides culinary employment opportunities to marginalized women
- Learn how the women use locally sourced ingredients to make handmade pies, noodles, baklava, cookies, and sample some of their pastries

Then, travel to the Ephesus region, a historic area on Turkey's west coast, and sit down for an included dinner.

Please note: On some departures a visit to İzmir at Mt. Pagos will take place when the Nar Kadin collective is closed.

Day 6: Sightseeing tour of Ephesus

Included meals: breakfast

Join your Tour Director on a guided tour of Ephesus, one of the best-preserved ancient Greek cities in the Mediterranean region.

- Discover many UNESCO-listed sites, including the elaborate Library of Celsus and the ruins of the Basilica of St. John
- View the Great Theatre, which is still in use today
- Step inside the house where the Virgin Mary is said to have spent her final days

Spend a free evening in the Ephesus region or add an excursion.

+ Traditional Turkish Meyhane Dinner

Pamukkale → 1 night

Day 7: Pamukkale via Sirince

Included meals: breakfast, wine tasting, dinner

Head inland and stop in the quaint town of Sirince, known for its wine and olive oil, to get a firsthand look at rural village life.

- Learn about the town's history of Greek and Turkish residents from your Tour Director
 - Hear how the local Turks reconstructed the Ottoman-era houses
 - Enjoy free time to explore the streets and markets
 - Visit a wine store for a tasting of local wines
- Later, arrive in Pamukkale and sit down for an included dinner.

Antalya → 3 nights

Day 8: Sightseeing tour of Hierapolis, Pamukkale & transfer to Antalya

Included meals: breakfast, dinner

Discover some of the area's natural wonders and ancient ruins on today's guided tour.

- Visit the UNESCO-listed city of Hierapolis to see the well-preserved Greco-Roman ruins
- Walk to neighboring Pamukkale, a popular spa town during the Roman times
- See the town's famous travertines—petrified waterfalls of white stone

Then, travel to Antalya and sit down for an included dinner this evening.

Day 9: Sightseeing tour of Antalya

Included meals: breakfast

Join your Tour Director on a tour of Antalya, a stunning coastal city known for its pristine beaches and beautiful scenery.

- Explore the Antalya Museum, an enormous complex with nearly 30,000 antiquities from the Stone Age, Roman, Hellenistic, and Byzantine periods
- Walk through Karaalioglu Park to admire views of Hidirlik Tower, the coastline, and mountains
- Uncover the ruins of Hadrian's Gate, a remarkably well-preserved triumphal arch

Enjoy a free afternoon in Antalya or add an excursion.

Day 6: Traditional Turkish Meyhane Dinner

$89CAD/$99CAD* (3 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Head to a meyhane in Izmir this evening for dinner. Meaning “wine house” in Turkish, these traditional restaurants serve various types of local food and drink in simple surroundings. You'll enjoy mezederes—shareable small plates—with your group as you sip raki, an anise-flavored brandy that's Turkey's national drink. Take in the vibe and chat with your group, listening to lively Turkish and Balkan music as you do. Then, return to your hotel a satisfied bunch.

Day 9: Aspendos & Perge

$85CAD/$95CAD* (4.5 hours, departure time varies)

After the Trojan Wars, some of the victorious Greek forces stayed in Asia Minor and established new towns for Greek colonists. This excursion will take you to Perge, one of the most successful of these new colonies, which prospered under the patronage of Alexander the Great. The ancient remains of this proud city are extensive, and you'll have a chance to explore the Great Theatre, the ruined Hellenistic Gates, Roman baths, and the impressive stadium. Later, visit the Roman theater at Aspendos, a center of classical drama in the first century A.D. Please note: During the summer months, this region can be quite hot. Please bring sunscreen and sturdy footwear.

Day 10: Mount Tahtali, Phaselis Ruins & Turquoise Coast

$129CAD/$139CAD* (7.5 hours, departs in the morning)

Make your way to the base of Mount Tahtali, which is located in Beydaglari Coastal National Park. This mountain is the highest in the national park and you'll take a cable car ride to the summit and admire the views—from 7,760 feet in the air, to be exact. Enjoy free time to walk around and explore the summit before riding the cable car back down to the base. Continue on to the ruins of Phaselis, an ancient Greco-Roman city on the Lycian coast. You'll explore the ruins and surrounding coastal nature preserve on a walking tour with a local guide. End the day by relaxing at a beach on the Turquoise Coast, also known as the Turkish Riviera. The beautiful coastline, mountainous scenery, and natural beauty have made this a beloved destination for locals and travelers alike. You can swim, eat lunch, and lounge on the sandy shores at your leisure before traveling back to the hotel. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent. The order of the cable car ride and Phaselis ruins tour may be swapped according to the time slot booked for the cable car ride.

Day 13: Underground City

$75CAD/$85CAD* (3 hours, departs in the morning)

Discover the mysterious underground city of Kaymaklı. This guided tour will expose the secrets of this ancient city brimming below the surface. The underground city consists of eight floors, four of which are open to visitors. Built to house hundreds of people, the city's tunnels and underground rooms boast innovations including a church, stable, wineries, kitchens, and a ventilation system, along with living areas.

Extension excursion options

Day 15: Hammam Spa Visit

$159CAD/$169CAD* (2 hours, departs in the morning)

Do as the Turks do and pay a visit to a hammam, or Turkish bath house. Going to a hammam has been a mainstay in Turkish culture since the times of the Ottoman empire and visiting one is seen as a time to socialize with friends and relax. Today, you'll visit a local, public bath house and admire the traditional architecture as you learn more about the roots of this cultural mainstay.

Day 15: Turkish Cooking Class & Dinner

$165CAD/$175CAD* (3 hours, departs in the afternoon, dinner included)

Dive into Turkey's culinary traditions during this evening's excursion. You'll take part in an interactive cooking class alongside a local chef to learn how to craft the types of Turkish foods that are lovingly made and served by local families. Discover the origins of the dishes you'll be cooking and try your hand at preparing them. At the end of the class, enjoy an included dinner paired with local wine.

Day 16: Bosphorus Straits Cruise

$119CAD/$129CAD* (5 hours, departure time varies, lunch included)

Cruise through the Bosphorus Straits, looking out on decadent Ottoman palaces and imposing medieval castles as you journey through the narrow waterway that separates Europe from Asia. On your way, you'll stop to visit the famous Egyptian bazaar, known as the Spice Market. After returning from your cruise, sit down to a lunch of Turkish specialties. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent. In some cases, dinner will be offered instead of lunch.
