Extension excursion options

Day 12: Swahili Cooking Class & Lunch

$119CAD/$129CAD* (5 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Learn how to make authentic Swahili food during today's market visit and cooking class. The day begins with a visit to a market in Stone Town where locals shop for grains, meat, and seafood used in traditional recipes. Then, continue on to a spice farm. Swahili cuisine is known for the bright, flavorful spices incorporated into each dish. Some of the most popular spices include turmeric, cumin seeds, curry powder, and tamarind. After you've learned about the flavors and roots of East African dishes, learn how to cook an authentic meal you'll find served at restaurants and in home across Zanzibar. Your meal may include local ingredients such as beans, yams, sweet potatoes, rice, spices, and plantains.

Day 13: Dhow Sunset Cruise & Dinner

$159CAD/$169CAD* (3 hours , departs in the evening, dinner included)

Make your way to the shores of Stone Town and step aboard a dhow, a traditional Arab pearling boat. You'll sail on the boat, led by a skilled crew, and head about a half-a-mile off the coast of Stone Town. From here, the crew will put the sails up and you'll have time to sit back, relax, and enjoy the peacefulness of the ocean as you watch the sunset. Savor a cold drink in view of the city's magnificent shoreline. After the sun sets, head back to Stone Town and enjoy an included dinner. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent.

*Optional excursions may be purchased up to three days prior to departure or while on tour. Pre-purchased optional excursions cannot be canceled within three days prior to departure or while on tour. Select optional excursions require advance booking and cannot be purchased or canceled after the advanced reservation deadline.
