A Week in Belize: Ruins, Reefs & Rainforests

Pre-departure information for your tour

Cuisine

- Belize's culinary influences derive from Spanish, Mexican, African, Caribbean, and Mayan cultures. While staples such as rice, beans, corn, and fruit are involved in nearly every meal, seafood is the shining star. Lobster, shrimp, and fish can be found on most menus. Local fruits like pineapples, mangos, and melons are abundant and fresh. For dessert, you're likely to find favorites like bread pudding and flan.
- Guatemalan cuisine, on the tour extension, is inspired by both Mayan and Spanish traditions. Most meals are centered around staples such as rice and beans or stews and seasoned meats. Don't miss the tamales, dough filled with meat or fruits and wrapped in green maxan leaves. Traditional treats include arroz con leche, tres leches cakes, and locally grown fruits, such as mango, papaya, banana, and avocado. Coffee lovers will want to sample Guatemala's world-class brew.

Electricity & air conditioning

- Belize operates on 110-120 volts and uses Types A, B, or G plugs with two flat pins, two flat pins and one round pin or three flat pins, respectively.
- Guatemala (on the tour extension) operates on 120 volts and uses Types A or B plugs with two flat pins, or two flat pins and one round pin, respectively.
- We recommend packing a universal adapter, as well as a voltage converter if you plan on using your own hairdryer or other device without a built-in converter.
- The strength of the air conditioning in Central American hotels is often not as strong or as cool as what you might be used to in the U.S. or Canada. When air conditioning is available, it is usually regulated seasonally and controlled centrally by the hotel.
- Your hotels may provide hairdryers, irons, and other small appliances. However, these amenities cannot be guaranteed.

Connectivity

- Wi-Fi is available in most hotels, though some charges may apply.

- There is no Wi-Fi on any of the motor coaches.
- Please contact your mobile service provider for information on roaming charges.

Time zones

- Belize (and Guatemala on the tour extension) are six hours behind Greenwich Mean Time (GMT) and one hour behind Eastern Time (ET). These countries do not observe Daylight Saving Time.
- When it's noon in New York City, it's 11am on tour from November through March and 10am from April through October.

Currency

- You will use the Belize dollar in Belize (and the Guatemalan quetzal in Guatemala on the tour extension).
- Better rates of exchange are usually available overseas, although it's worth ordering some currency from your local bank to use when you first arrive.
- We strongly advise that you take debit/bank cards and credit cards, which can be used to withdraw cash at local banks as needed.
- You can use most debit/credit cards at ATMs on the international networks Cirrus and Plus, but make sure to check with your home bank about withdrawal fees.
- Inform your bank and credit card company of your travel plans so that they won't confuse your international purchases for fraudulent charges.
- International banks and businesses primarily accept debit and credit cards that work with the EMV chip system. If you do not already have at least one debit or credit card with a chip in it, we strongly recommend requesting one from your bank prior to your tour.

Tipping

- At the conclusion of your tour, it's customary to offer your Tour Director and driver a gratuity in local currency or USD. Please keep current exchange rates in mind.
- We recommend tipping the equivalent of $8USD to $10USD per person per day for your Tour Director and the equivalent of $3USD per person per day for your driver.

- If applicable, we also recommend the equivalent of $2USD per local guide.
- Tips can only be paid in cash.

Purchasing excursions on tour

- Most optional excursions will be available for purchase while you are on tour.
- Your Tour Director will only accept cash (in USD only), Visa, or MasterCard as payment for excursions.
- Please be advised that if you pay for an excursion by credit card while on tour, it may take up to three months for your card to be charged.
- Some optional excursions may only be purchased in advance. See page four of your tour itinerary for more information.
- International travel is, by its very nature, unpredictable. We must therefore reserve the right to change this itinerary, without advance notice, to meet with local conditions at the time of travel. We appreciate your understanding. Please refer to our website for Terms & Conditions, dates, and prices.
