Cuisine

- For a picnic with French flair, stop at a small grocery store for cheeses, pâtés, cured meats, fresh-baked bread, and fruit. In the cities, sidewalk vendors are known for their steaming crepes, while mouthwatering pastries and hot café au lait beckon from cafes. In restaurants, the prix fixe option is a popular way to enjoy a set three - or four-course menu for a good price.
- Although lunch is generally served from noon until 2pm, dinner is served from 7:30pm onward. Those wishing to eat earlier can stop at a cafe, where light entrées and sandwiches are available throughout the afternoon and evening.
- The town market plays an important role in daily French life. Peruse the stalls to find freshly baked breads, locally grown produce, handmade cheeses, cured meats and more.
- Some of the must-try local foods on this tour include cassoulet, oysters, goat cheese, Tarte Tatin, wild game, and truffles (when in season).
- France's wine regions offer some of the most famous varietals in the world, from robust reds in Bordeaux to crisp whites in the Loire Valley. The Dordogne Valley is known for its sweet whites and the famous brandy produced in the Cognac region is a must try.

Electricity & air conditioning

- France operates on the European standard 220-240 volts and uses Types C, E, or F plugs with two small, round pins.
- We recommend packing a universal adapter, as well as a voltage converter if you plan on using your own hairdryer or other electrical device without a built-in converter.
